

What is Spiritan Campus Ministry?

Spiritan Campus Ministry is much more than a group of individuals or an agenda of programs or opportunities for service. It is the Spirit of Duquesne University...the Spirit that moves, that leads, that guides.

SCM serves all students, faculty and staff—whatever their faith—by helping them understand and engage the University mission and Spiritan tradition so they can share it with each other, their communities and the world beyond.

Pastoral Care- Spiritan campus ministers are trained professionals, lay and ordained, men and women, who are available to serve the needs of Duquesne students, faculty, and staff, especially on issues of faith, relationships and life's struggles.

Feel free to contact Spiritan Campus Ministry anytime, but especially when...

- you are worried about grades
- you are in conflict over friends or roommate
- you have questions about your sexuality
- you have concerns about your family or friends
- your faith is challenged
- you or someone you know is ill
- you have questions on morality
- you are facing issues of death and dying
- you or someone you know is experiencing an unplanned pregnancy
- you need spiritual direction
- you are considering becoming Catholic, or need preparation to receive the sacraments of Eucharist, Confirmation and/or Reconciliation

NEW ROMAN MISSAL

This Advent season marks more than simply the beginning of a new liturgical year. It will also be the implementation of the Third Edition of the Roman Missal in churches all over the country. Many have questions such as, what does this new translation of the Mass mean, and why is it important to make such a change? These are all excellent questions and are addressed in the following article released by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Please take a moment to see what these changes mean for us as a Catholic community.

“Pope John Paul II issued the third edition of the Missale Romanum (the Latin text of the Roman Missal) during the Jubilee Year in 2000. This new edition included many new texts requiring translation. In addition, the experience of the years after the Second Vatican Council gave rise to a desire for more formal and literal translations of the original Latin texts. This new translation will employ the best of what we have learned about translation and liturgical language in two generations of celebrating the Liturgy in the vernacular. It will provide an opportunity to reflect ever more deeply on the Eucharistic celebration that lies at the heart of the Church's life.

Implementing the new Missal will give the Church an opportunity to take a fresh look at its liturgical practice and to renew its celebration of the Sacred Liturgy, which is the ‘source and summit’ of Christian life (Second Vatican Council, Dogmatic Constitution on the Church [Lumen Gentium], no. 11). The faithful, encountering the Liturgy anew in the new text, can deepen their sharing in Christ's sacrifice, offering their lives to the Father as they worship ‘in Spirit and truth’ (Jn 4:23).”

RESPONDING TO THE WORD

by Alex Brennstetter

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – October 9

Please provide text.

- Isaiah 25:6-10a
- Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20
- Matthew 22:1-14

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – October 16

In today's gospel Jesus calls us to give to “God what belongs to God.” As His children, we must remember that God calls us all as His own. How can I look beyond the differences in others to see the God that resides in all people?

- Isaiah 45:1, 4-6
- 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b
- Matthew 22:15-21

“Act justly, love tenderly and walk humbly with your God.” – Micah 6:8

WELCOME PARENTS!

Spiritan Campus Ministry would like to offer a warm welcome to the parents and families on campus for the Freshmen Parent Weekend!

A PRAYER FOR UNITY

God of all, you challenge us to be a unified national community

You call us to move beyond partisan politics so we may create a vision of the common good so sorely needed for our country.

In this time of confusion, you call us to see clearly with the lens of justice for all.

In this time of disrespect for so many, you call on us to practice respect for all voices around the table, and for all voices not heard in the discussions.

In this time of personal insecurity, you call on us to be grounded in compassion for others and secure in the knowledge we are called to community.

In this time of despair for so many, you call us to practice hope.

God of all, bless our nation at this time and open the way to unity so we may follow your call. Amen.

FALL REDD UP

On Saturday, Oct. 22, Evergreen, in collaboration with Spiritan Campus Ministry, will be leading students on a clean up in parts of Uptown and the Hill District as a part of the Fall Redd Up. The Redd Up is a citywide event that includes groups from 84 participating neighborhoods. We will be working along side members of the Dinwiddie Street Alliance and Uptown Partners of Pittsburgh that day to clean up street litter and empty lots from 9 a.m. to Noon, with lunch following. All are welcome to participate in this event but you need to sign up in advance! To register, email evergreenduc@gmail.com.

INTERFAITH COUNCIL FORMED ON CAMPUS

This year, a collaboration of departments, including Spiritan Campus Ministry, are participating in the White House Collegiate Interfaith Service Challenge. As a part of this interfaith initiative, a council of 12 students representing six different faith perspectives has been formed. The Council will serve to create events that promote interfaith dialogue using community engagement as a common ground. Events throughout the year will include interfaith dialogues, a presentation on engaging in community across cultural barriers and, of course, outreach projects in our community. For more information the council or any of these events, please contact Luci-Jo at dimaggi171@duq.edu.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SLEEP OUT FOR THE HOMELESS EVENT

On Saturday, Oct. 8, the Pittsburgh Student Government Council, in conjunction with the Duquesne's St. Vincent DePaul Society and Spiritan Campus Ministry, hosted a "Sleep-out for the Homeless" event on campus. The event began at 7 p.m. and went through the next morning. Activities included sorting of supplies for our homeless outreach on campus, discussions and educational pieces on homelessness in our area, and hearing from a formerly homeless person. If you would like to engage in homeless outreach on campus, contact Luci-Jo at dimaggi171@duq.edu.

LIBERMANN LUNCHEON

Back by popular demand! This November, attendees of the Libermann Luncheon will be taking part in an outreach project during the lunch. We will be putting together food baskets and care packages for low income elderly residents of Ormsby Manor in Mt. Oliver. We will also be hearing from Dora Walmsley from the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank about how hunger is affecting our region. For more information, please contact Mary Beth Calorie at 412.396.6020 or caloriem@duq.edu.
