

What is Spiritan Campus Ministry?

Spiritan Campus Ministry is much more than a group of individuals or an agenda of programs or opportunities for service. It is the Spirit of Duquesne University...the Spirit that moves, that leads, that guides.

SCM serves all students, faculty and staff—whatever their faith—by helping them understand and engage the University mission and Spiritan tradition so they can share it with each other, their communities and the world beyond.

Pastoral Care- Spiritan campus ministers are trained professionals, lay and ordained, men and women, who are available to serve the needs of Duquesne students, faculty, and staff, especially on issues of faith, relationships and life's struggles.

Feel free to contact Spiritan Campus Ministry anytime, but especially when...

- you are worried about grades
- you are in conflict over friends or roommate
- you have questions about your sexuality
- you have concerns about your family or friends
- your faith is challenged
- you or someone you know is ill
- you have questions on morality
- you are facing issues of death and dying
- you or someone you know is experiencing an unplanned pregnancy
- you need spiritual direction
- you are considering becoming Catholic, or need preparation to receive the sacraments of Eucharist, Confirmation and/or Reconciliation

A CELEBRATION OF PEACE

“The International Day of Peace (“Peace Day”) provides an opportunity for individuals, organizations and nations to create practical acts of peace on a shared date. It was established by a United Nations resolution in 1981 to coincide with the opening of the General Assembly. The first Peace Day was celebrated in September 1982.

Since its inception, Peace Day has marked our personal and planetary progress toward peace. It has grown to include millions of people in all parts of the world, and each year events are organized to commemorate and celebrate this day. Events range in scale from private gatherings to public concerts and forums where hundreds of thousands of people participate.

Anyone, anywhere can celebrate Peace Day. It can be as simple as lighting a candle at noon, or just sitting in silent meditation. Or it can involve getting your co-workers, organization, community or government engaged in a large event. The impact if millions of people in all parts of the world, coming together for one day of peace, is immense.

International Day of Peace is also a Day of Ceasefire – personal or political. Take this opportunity to make peace in your own relationships as well as impact the larger conflicts of our time. Imagine what a whole Day of Ceasefire would mean to humankind.”

Please join Spiritan Campus Ministry and other on-campus partners observing the International Day of Peace as a part of the 11 Days of Peace. See list of events on the inside of the bulletin.

For more information on the International Day of Peace visit <http://internationaldayofpeace.org>.

RESPONDING TO THE WORD

by Alex Brennstetter

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – September 11

Today's Scriptures, especially the Gospel, speak about forgiveness. As we also mark the 10th anniversary of the September 11 attacks, let us pray for the strength to trust that our God will ensure that justice is done, and realize that “wrath and anger are hateful things” and will only cause us further hurt.

- Sirach 24:30 – 28:7
- Romans 14:7-9
- Matthew 18:21-35

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – September 18

Paul instructs us to “conduct yourselves in a way worthy of the gospel of Christ.” Today's Gospel teaches us about the generosity and justice of God, that are ‘so high above our human ways’. How can we become more genuine in our generosity in our daily living and in our encounters with others, especially the poor and marginalized?

- Isaiah 55:6-9
- Philippians 1:20c-24, 27a
- Matthew 20:1-16a

“Act justly, love tenderly and walk humbly with your God.” – Micah 6:8

EMMAUS

Calling all Freshmen! Please join us for the first meeting of Emmaus on Monday, Sept. 12 at 5p.m. in the Spiritan Campus Ministry Center in Towers. Emmaus is an opportunity for Freshmen to come, grab some food and talk about relevant life issues of transition, faith and discovery in today's world. The people in Emmaus come together in intentional community so that we can walk together on the journey. Dinner will be provided for this meeting.

For more information, please contact Kate Lecci at leccik@duq.edu or X5093.

SEPTEMBER

PRAYER FOR 9/11

We remember the day
Terror rained down
And we were engulfed
In fear and in grief.

Our grief remains
And we form our hands in prayer to say
Grant peace, O Lord, to the Souls of all those who perished on that day.
Grant comfort to the families
Who lost loved ones,
Grant healing to the to those who carry scars,
of the heart as well as the body,
Of that day seven years ago.

Our fear remains,
And we struggle to move beyond it
To the place where we can say,
Lord, have mercy on us and all your children,
And grant us the grace to know the true security
you promise,
The security that comes with the actualization of peace and justice for every nation and all peoples.

May the memory of those who died,
and the recognition of all who still bear
the scars of that day,
Bless us.
May their memories inspire us in our efforts
to face the complexities of this world
so we can say
Peace be with you
And with us also.
