

Adriana Dobrzycka Biosketch

Adriana Dobrzycka is a Community Outreach and Inclusion Manager at Vibrant Pittsburgh (VP), an economic development non-profit that works to attract, retain, and elevate diverse talent in the Pittsburgh Region. In her role at VP, Adriana manages the Welcome Center activities and works to connect Pittsburgh's diverse communities and identify opportunities for collaboration. Prior to Vibrant Pittsburgh, Adriana was a Program Officer at the Women and Girls Foundation where she managed the Foundation's grantmaking activities focused on increasing rights for women and girls in Southwest PA. Adriana holds a Master's degree in International Development and Public Health from the University of Pittsburgh, focusing on Community Health, Development Planning, and Environmental Sustainability. Adriana is from Florence, Italy, and in her five years in Pittsburgh she has been involved with several community organizations working with women, girls, immigrants and internationals to amplify community voices and create new community assets such as the Pittsburgh Language Bank. Adriana currently serves on the steering committee of the Girls Coalition of Southwestern PA, as well as on the Board of Consumer Health Coalition and The Midwife Center for Birth and Women's Health. Adriana is also Co-Chair of the Allegheny County Department of Human Services (DHS) Immigrants and Internationals Advisory Council (IIAC).