How do you know if your products contain regulated chemical substances?

Products may need to be regulated, if…

- They are made of plastic or plastic components
- They are made of metal or metal components
- They have a coating
- They use ink
- They have electronic components
- They are painted
- They are glued
- They contain flame retardants

You must check if you need to comply with REACH!