Welcome New Students
A Guide to Your New Home

More Important Information

- Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)
  The relationship between students, parents and the University is of the utmost importance to us. If you wish to waive your Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) rights so that this record can be disclosed to your parent or guardian, please visit www.duq.edu/ferpa.

- Get your DU Card
  More than a photo ID, your DU Card is your “key” to getting into campus buildings, buying meals, using the library and other facilities. This can be done during FAST (see dates below). Orientation week or anytime you are on campus. Stop by Duquesne Union, Room 210, to obtain your DU Card. You will have your picture taken and receive your card during this visit. Learn more at www.duq.edu/ducard.

- New Student Orientation 2017
  Discover all the details in store for you at Orientation! You will soon discover why this student-run program has won national honors for its ability to welcome new students into the Duquesne University family. Get ready to be wowed! You will be receiving a mailer from Orientation soon. Learn more at www.duq.edu/orientation.

- Visit Campus Link
  While on DORI, be sure to select the Campus Link/Student Organizations link to find out what’s happening at Duquesne and how to get involved in student organizations.

- Check out the DU Computer Store
  The Duquesne University Computer Store offers on-site sales and services for Apple and Dell products. The store is your one-stop shop for all consumer electronics. Visit us at www.duq.edu/computerstore or in the Duquesne Union.

- Get a bank account on campus
  PNC Bank offers a branch and ATMs on campus. You can even link a PNC Bank account free of charge to your DU Card so that it becomes your ATM card. Learn more at www.pnc.com/du.

- Review Student Handbook
  This is a great resource for all students and an amazing go-to guide for all new students learning about Duquesne University for the first time. The Student Handbook is available at www.duq.edu/student-handbook.

- Sign up for University Success courses
  The Learning Skills Center helps students with tutoring, counseling for learning and professional test-taking services. Learn more at www.duq.edu/learningskills.

- Parking Permits
  Parking permits for freshmen will be available for purchase online towards the end of July. Students are encouraged to apply as early as possible once the permits become available. Please visit the parking website for more information - www.duq.edu/parking.
