Apply to Win One of Four Full Tuition Scholarships!

Two high school juniors and two high school seniors will win full tuition scholarships to Duquesne University for four years.

Criteria and Directions:
- Must be a first place winner at the 2016 PJAS Region 7 Competition
- 300 to 400 word essay on how science education has benefited you
- High school transcript (and standardized test scores if available)
- Email message with your name, phone number, address, junior or senior status, title of your PJAS project that won first place; attach your essay, transcript (and any PSAT, SAT or ACT scores if available); put “PJAS Scholarship Application” in the subject line
- Submit to emg@duq.edu by February 16, 2016

Winners will be notified by mid-March and announced on the PJAS website. Questions? Contact Joe Giuffre, Assistant Director of Admission, at giuffre115@duq.edu or 412.396.5708. (Basic tuition rate. Non-transferable. Eligibility includes application and acceptance to Duquesne University. Must be used upon HS graduation).

---

Academic Scholarships of $10,000/year in Chemistry and Biochemistry

National Science Foundation
Duquesne University Chemistry and Biochemistry
This successful program ensures that academically proven and financially challenged students are able to pursue a quality higher education degree. For more information contact Professor Evanseck at evanseck@duq.edu.