What is Spiritan Campus Ministry?

Spiritan Campus Ministry is much more than a group of individuals or an agenda of programs or opportunities for service. It is the Spirit of Duquesne University… the Spirit that moves, that leads, that guides. SCM serves all students, faculty and staff—whatever their faith—by helping them understand and engage the University mission and Spiritan tradition so they can share it with each other, their communities and the world beyond.

Pastoral Care: Spiritan campus ministers are trained professionals, lay and ordained, men and women, who are available to serve the needs of Duquesne students, faculty, and staff, especially on issues of faith, relationships and life’s struggles.

Feel free to contact Spiritan Campus Ministry anytime, but especially when...

- you are considering becoming Catholic, or need preparation to
- you need spiritual direction
- you or someone you know is experiencing an unplanned pregnancy
- you are facing issues of death and dying
- you or someone you know is ill

THE ULTIMATE VALENTINE

As we celebrate Valentine’s Day, this special day dedicated to romantic love, we are reminded of the “ultimate Valentine,” sent to us from God by way of the Gospel writers. John’s gospel and letters in particular are filled with explicit messages of love:

- “Beloved, let us love one another because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten of God and has knowledge of God... God’s love was revealed in our midst in this way; he sent his only son to the world that we might have life through him. Love then, consists in this; not that we have loved God, but that God has loved us... Beloved, if God has loved us so, we must have the same love for one another... God dwells in us, and God’s love is brought to perfection in us... We have come to know and to believe in the love God has for us. God is love and they who abide in love abide in God, and God is in them.”

(1 John 4:1, 9-10a, 11-12, 15)

RESPONDING TO THE WORD

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – February 5

Today’s Gospel deals with the trials and tribulations of life. Everyone at some point in time will experience hardship. In this Gospel, Jesus shows us that we can turn to him in times of despair. Jesus shows himself through friends, family and professions that can help us through our times of difficulty. How can you be Jesus to a friend in difficult times?

- • Job 7:1-4, 6-7
- • 1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23
- • Mark 1:29-39

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – February 12

The story of Jesus healing the leper is two-fold. Not only is the leper physically suffering because of illness, the illness itself causes social stigma which outcasts anyone who has the disease. The fact that Jesus was willing to go near someone possessing the disease was truly radical for the time. Similarly, in today’s society people suffering can be cast out to the margins. How can you show the radical love that Jesus showed to those around you?

- • Leviticus 13:1-2, 44-46
- • 1 Corinthians 10:11-11:1
- • Mark 1:40-45

CONGRATULATIONS TO GOLDEN KEY MEMBERS

On Sunday, Feb. 12, 2012 at the 11 a.m. liturgy, we welcome and celebrate the incoming members of the Golden Key Society, their parents, families and friends. The Golden Key Honor Society is by invitation only, and eligibility for membership is based on a student's grade point average. Congratulations on this high honor!

THE GATHERING – A SPACE TO EXPLORE PERCEPTIONS ABOUT DIVERSE COMMUNITIES

The Gathering is an interactive and reflective experience facilitated by students for students. It is appropriate for students who encounter diversity (i.e. racial, gender, age, ability, economic, and religious difference) through individual community engagement, service-learning, and volunteerism. The Rev. Tim Smith, Executive Director of the Center of Life and the Pastor of the Keystone Church of Hazelwood, will be the keynote speaker. The event will be held on Feb. 11 from Noon-5 p.m. in the Union Ballroom. For information and to RSVP, visit www.duq.edu/community/gathering.cfm or call 412-396-5893. Sponsored by the Office of Service-Learning, Department of Communications and Rhetoric, and Spiritan Campus Ministry.

PURSUING PURPOSE RETREAT

YOU are invited.

Be Bold. Be You.

make your tomorrow matter | February 11, 2012

The Pursuing Purpose Retreat is designed to equip you to be bold and ask significant questions about your life. It features several different sessions that guide you through your purpose, your plan, and your pursuit of success. Come with questions about your life, career, and aspirations. Discover how to be bolder about stepping into your future.

BUILDING INTERRELIGIOUS RELATIONSHIPS SYMPOSIUM

Stop by the Africa Room on Tuesday, Feb. 7, at 4 p.m. to hear keynote speakers Daisy Khan, Executive Director of American Society for Muslim Advancement, and Peter C. Phan, S.T.D., Ph.D., D.D., Ignacio Ellacuria Chair of Catholic Social Thought at Georgetown University. This symposium seeks to explore Women and Minorities in Interreligious Dialogue in the United States. The event is organized by the Duquesne University Christian-Muslim Dialogue Committee. For more information, go to http://www.duq.edu/theology/christian-muslim-dialogue/.

LIBERMAN LUNCHEON

AN EXTENSION OF OUR APPALACHIAN EXPERIENCE

The Libermann Luncheon’s are a monthly lunch for faculty geared toward “nourishing the soul.” They typically host a speaker on a number of topics from the Lenten experience to finding time in our busy lives. The Tuesday, Feb. 7 lunch will work a little differently. For the second year, attendees of the lunch will gather to make fleece blankets that will be distributed to economically disadvantaged families with young children in southern West Virginia. The blankets will be taken to West Virginia by students attending the Appalachian Experience over Spring Break. While we may think of Spring Break as only being for students, this is a great example of how everyone in the DU community can be a part of the experience!

ROSARY WITH THE KNIGHTS

The Knights of Columbus invite any and all who would like to join them in praying the Rosary for Vocations throughout the spring semester.

• Thursday, Feb. 16
• Thursday, Mar. 29
• Thursday, Apr. 19

The evenings begin at 9 p.m. and will be held in the Duquesne University Chapel of the Holy Spirit.

For more information, please contact Fr. Naos McCool at mccool@duq.edu or 412-396-6144.

PRAYER FOR GLOBAL SOLIDARITY

– by Jane Deen

May, our mother, mother of all,
We journey as pilgrims
To sacred spaces,
Where all are welcomed, all are family.
Guide our steps as we search for your face
In the faces of those who suffer,
Those who thirst for healing, for justice, for peace.
May we know the place we are called to
When we recognize and embrace them,
And know we have reached home.

LAVAL PROJECT

Spiritan Campus Ministry is once again starting up the Laval Project this semester. This series is a unique opportunity for students to learn about the process of non-violent social change in the context of one of our local neighborhoods, the Hill District. Students learn the history of the Hill, where it is now, and how the community sees its future from longstanding community residents. Students also will learn about the concepts behind the process of justice including the See, Judge, Act model, the history of non-violent social change, the Catholic Social Teaching principals that inform work in justice and the Spiritan charism that motivates our work. The group gathers twice a month on Mondays from 4–6 p.m. For more information, please contact Luci-Jo DiMaggio at dimaggi171@duq.edu or Matt Walsh at walshm@duq.edu.
