Center for Pharmacy Care
Director: Christine K. O’Neil, Pharm.D, BCPS, FCCP

The Center for Pharmacy Care, established in October 2002, focuses on health education and wellness education and offers educational programs and health screenings for hypertension, cholesterol, diabetes and osteoporosis. The programs currently are available to the University community; plans are to provide the programs to the surrounding Pittsburgh/Allegheny County community. The Center serves as an ambulatory care site for experiential education. In conjunction with the Center for Pharmaceutical Information, the Well Aware, a bimonthly newsletter featuring articles on health and wellness, is published.

Living My Life Diabetes Self-Management Program
Project Manager: Hilde Berdine, Pharm.D., BCPS

Since January 2007, 35 pharmacists and seven Duquesne University student pharmacists have participated in the LivingMyLife™ Ten City Challenge, which is a collaborative program with American Pharmacists Association (APhA) Foundation, Pittsburgh Business Group on Health (PBGH), and Giant Eagle Pharmacy.

To date, this program has benefited employees of Duquesne University, Heinz Corporation and Carnegie Mellon University. Dr. Berdine’s interview was published in the Diabetes Ten City Challenge Newsline, an APhA Foundation publication.

ACTIVITIES

The diabetes self management model using the pharmacist-coach is an exceptional learning opportunity for our P-IV students on experiential education rotations. All of the 18 students assigned to Dr. Berdine plus others assigned to our group practice faculty are involved in the care of these diabetes clients. Teaching diabetes self management and care of the patient with diabetes aligns with the Mylan School of Pharmacy strategic plan by incorporating active learning strategies into the curriculum. With diabetes at near epidemic proportions in our society, this is an important disease to understand from a clinical and patient perspective. As students near provider status, certificate programs will become more important than ever in credentialing providers. Over the past year, Dr. Berdine has been involved in the following efforts to promote the success of the pharmacist-coach model in partnership with the APhA Foundation, Giant Eagle, and PBGH:

- Collaboration with Dr. Deborah Krasnow from Giant Eagle to determine the value of one “unit” of pharmaceutical care. Pharmacist job satisfaction is being surveyed in the IRB-approved project as well.

- Dr. Berdine presented a two-hour live session to the LivingMyLife network pharmacists on patient case management illustrating the care of difficult patients in the self management program.

- Dr. Berdine is serving another term on the Pennsylvania Diabetes Action Program, Pennsylvania State Department of Health Executive Leadership Team (PDAP ELT). Meetings are four times a year. She is the sole pharmacist representative.

Dr. Berdine continues as a member of the Pennsylvania Statewide Diabetes Planning Committee, October 2005 to the present. The mission of the group is to organize efforts to develop a statewide diabetes blueprint by identifying the burden of diabetes in Pennsylvania and the barriers to prevention and care; link potential partners; identify health disparities; to operationalize a sustainable statewide diabetes plan for Pennsylvania. Meetings are four times a year. Please access the following website for further information: www.dsf.health.state.pa.us/health/lib/health/diabetes/PADiabetesActionPlan.pdf.

Dr. Berdine was invited to present the final summary educational session about diabetes self management at the Advanced Practice Institute on Diabetes Care in Washington, DC, May 1, 2010, sponsored by the American Pharmacists Association Foundation.

Dr. Berdine was selected as national moderator for the APhA e-community on diabetes care in February 2009 and continues to serve in this capacity.

Dr. Berdine was selected for the Amylin National Rethink Tank Steering Committee and as a pharmacist advisor to Eli Lilly and Company March 2009 and continues to serve on these committees.

Immunization Initiative and Related Projects
Project Manager: Hilde Berdine, Pharm.D., BCPS

Duquesne University Mylan School of Pharmacy sponsored several American Pharmacists Association (APhA) Immunization Certificate Programs for pharmacist and student pharmacists. More than 15,000 influenza vaccinations were administered as a result of these training programs. Giant Eagle and MedFast provided grant support.

The Center provided influenza immunizations for Duquesne University faculty, students, and employees, as well as various Pittsburgh area communities during visits with the Spirit of Health Mobile Unit.

ACTIVITIES

Vaccination delivery by pharmacists to the public is an essential skill adopted by both our student pharmacists and pharmacists in our community. This was an important landmark year in which the faculty voted to require this skill for graduation for all student pharmacists. Completion of the certificate program is a requirement in the state of Pennsylvania to apply for “authorization to immunize.”

Our collaborative agreement with Dr. Essig was expanded to include a variety of vaccines beyond the influenza vaccine. The number of vaccines given in the primary care physician’s office greatly increased over last year, as well as the number of influenza vaccinations given to employees at the Center for Pharmacy Care.

Teaching immunization theory and practice aligns with our school’s strategic plan by incorporating active learning strategies into the curriculum. The ability to immunize an individual is an important skill for a contemporary pharmacist to acquire as he/she is able to improve the public health of his/her own neighborhoods and communities.

Pharmacist Medication Management and Adherence Clinic based in a Physician’s Office
Project Manager: Hilde Berdine Pharm.D., BCPS

The Center for Pharmacy Care maintains an ambulatory care site within a physician office to facilitate faculty scholarship and student experiences. A poster describing the demographics of the practice, service delivery and future directions for the practice was presented at the ACCP meeting.

ACTIVITIES

- As of May 15, 2009, another 64 patients have been referred to the clinic, for a total of 141 patients over the almost two-year existence of the service.
- The number of unique patient encounters totaled approximately 250.
- The PGY-1 resident participated in clinic activities and assisted the independent study students in their work.

Spirit of Health Initiative

The Spirit of Health initiative, a partnership between the Mylan School of Pharmacy Center for Pharmacy Carer, the Sisters of St. Francis of Millvale and the Pittsburgh Mercy Health System, is a faith-based mobile wellness and disease prevention outreach collaborative. Utilizing a mobile health care unit provided by the Sisters of St. Francis, Duquesne University student pharmacists and faculty provided a number of services, including disease state education, medication therapy education, influenza immunization, health assessment and referral services.

Center for Pharmaceutical Information
Director: John G. Lech, Pharm.D.

The Pharmaceutical Information Center (PIC) is a drug information service that provides responses to drug information requests generated by alumni, preceptors, students and faculty of the School of Pharmacy and the Graduate School of Pharmaceutical Sciences and from all health professionals in Western Pennsylvania. It also accepts information requests from the Duquesne University community, including Student Health Services. The Center has provided drug information support to the general public for nearly three decades. It serves as an experiential education site for Doctor of Pharmacy students and maintains a core library of reference texts, periodicals and electronic resources for use by faculty and students of the School of Pharmacy.

ACTIVITIES
- Received more than 1,300 drug information requests with over 500 initiated by School of Pharmacy alumni.
- Produced five Well Aware publications and two contributions to the Materia Medica column published in the Bulletin of the Allegheny County Medical Society.
Published 48 weekly “PIC Question of the Week” articles written by Pharm.D. candidates under the direction of the PIC director. These are posted on the School of Pharmacy Web site and are accessible on Blackboard to all preceptors and students participating in the Experiential Education program. Some topics have been rated as number one when identified in the Google search engine.

Communicated information on new databases and related resources on (standard and mobile) maintained by the Gumberg Library to students and faculty of the School of Pharmacy.

Recognized by pediatricians and lactation consultants as a quality source of information on drugs and breastfeeding

The PIC provides yearly continuing education programs on drug information resources, and serves as an information support service for student pharmacists.

Center for Pharmaceutical Technology

Duquesne Center for Pharmaceutical Technology (DCPT)

Director: James K. Drennen III, Ph.D.

The Duquesne University Center for Pharmaceutical Technology (DCPT) focuses on the advancement of pharmaceutical manufacturing through the application of appropriate technologies for the improvement of safety, quality and efficiency throughout the pharmaceutical industry. The DCPT exists as a focal point for the research interests of faculty and collaborators for the development and scientifically based implementation of pharmaceutical manufacturing technology. It addresses the major issues of regulatory concerns, science based methods validation, and business advantages of technology. Participants (clients and collaborators) in the Center include representatives from industry, other academic institutions, regulatory authorities, equipment vendors and private consultants.

ACTIVITIES

During the 2009-2010 academic year, the DCPT worked to expand its activities to meet the mission of the Center, the School and the University. The DCPT met many of its goals during the year, continuing projects with industrial sponsors, and identify new opportunities to participate in training for industry and regulators.

During the 2011 academic year, the DCPT will seek additional funding from industry and government sources. Partnerships shall continue with Tera View, Polychromix/Thermo, Kaiser, Hoffman LaRoche, Bristol Myers Squibb, SPCTechnologies, LLC and Control Development.

In September 2009, Drs. Anderson and Drennen presented a training session at Duquesne University to 38 FDA and other regulators, including 2.5 days in a session on Process Analytical Technology and Quality by Design.

Center for Pharmacy Practice

The goal of the Center for Pharmacy Practice is to provide an environment for student pharmacists to integrate, reinforce, and enhance student learning. The Center demonstrates how didactic information is related to the practice of pharmacy practice, state-of-the-art technology, prescription, nonprescription, and herbal medications. The Center aims to provide a location for student pharmacists to work together to enhance their learning. By showing the relationship between class lectures and pharmacy practice, students are able to gain a better understanding of the information presented to them.

The Center for Pharmacy Practice consists of a simulated community pharmacy, hospital pharmacy, and sterile products area. The community pharmacy is equipped with PharmaServ® software and Pharmacy 2000® dispensing systems. The hospital pharmacy is equipped with QS1® software and Pyxis® dispensing systems. SimMan®, a portable and advanced patient simulator, is used by students to practice communication and patient assessment skills.
Preceptor Development Program

As part of the Pennsylvania Coalition of Schools of Pharmacy, the Mylan School of Pharmacy offers the online APhA/NACDS Community Pharmacist Preceptor Education Program as foundational preceptor training and development on an ongoing basis. The Pennsylvania Coalition also offered pharmacists and preceptors the opportunity to participate in an all-day medication therapy management training seminar and workshop in select cities across Pennsylvania including October 1, 2009, in Lancaster; March 9, 2010, in Pittsburgh; and May 21, 2010, in York.

A continuing education program titled “Bloom’s Taxonomy as a Framework for a Clinical Practice Experience” was offered at Allegheny General Hospital on November 20, 2009, by Janet Astle, BS Pharm, and Kathleen DeRose, EdD. As part of the Duquesne University Mylan School of Pharmacy Annual Alumni Conference, a continuing education program titled “AWOL: Motivating the Disengaged Student” was offered on April 30, 2010, by Janet Astle.

The APhA Immunization Certificate Program was offered at the Duquesne University campus for licensed pharmacists and preceptors by Hildegarde J. Berdine, BS Pharm, PharmD, on October 20 and December 12, 2009; and May 6-7 and June 16-17, 2010. Pharmacists successfully completing this course are eligible for certification as immunization providers in designated states. A diabetes certification program was also offered by Dr. Berdine on March 11, 2010.

Portfolio evaluation workshops were hosted by Janet Astle, Tracy King, PharmD, and Pamela Koerner, BS Pharm, PharmD, through the Office of Experiential Education on December 1, 2009, and May 17, 2010, for those preceptors expressing an interest in serving as part of the student portfolio assessment team. Preceptors were also invited to participate in the development, implementation and assessment of the Integrated Pharmacy Application (IPA) examinations, as coordinated by Bruce Livengood, BS Pharm, PharmD, and administered to students enrolled in the Doctor of Pharmacy program. The IPA exams serve in preparation for and gateway to the advanced pharmacy practice experiences.

Finally, core community pharmacist preceptors are invited to participate in weekly small group student seminars facilitated by School of Pharmacy practice faculty and held on the Duquesne campus for the purpose of discussing patient cases, interventions and patient care projects.

Academic Partners Program

Director: Dr. Thomas J. Mattei, Associate Dean

Since September 2007, the Academic Partners Program has integrated the resources of the Mylan School of Pharmacy with the resources offered by practice sites around the region with the goal of enhancing patient health outcomes. Partnerships exist with acute care, ambulatory care and community-based pharmacy practices.

The Academic Partners Program is designed to establish scholarship/practice opportunities for pharmacy practice faculty and to develop a network of community and hospital pharmacies to facilitate advancement of pharmacy care through medication therapy management, staff development programs, drug information and patient education, health and economic research, and related technology for medication therapy management and medication safety management.
Fellowship and Residency Programs

Director: Dr. Thomas J. Mattei, Associate Dean

FELLOWS PROGRAM

The Academic Teaching and Research Fellowship program is intended to prepare the fellow for a career in academia. Throughout the two-year program, the fellow is expected to demonstrate proficiency in the core components of research, clinical practice and teaching through coursework, assignments and projects, and individualized pharmacy practice experiences in a specialized practice area.

Currently, there are pharmacy practice sites that serve as clinical rotation sites for fellows and residents. Each site is operated by a faculty member of the School of Pharmacy. These sites serve as a means for fellows and residents to not only refine their clinical skills, but also gain experience as a preceptor for student pharmacists.

PROGRAM PRACTICE SITES

- Catholic Charities Free Health Care Center is a free health care center that provides medical, dental and specialty care such as gynecological services at no charge to those unable to afford adequate health insurance. Director, Dr. Autumn Runyon.

- Smithfield Family Practice is a physician practice in downtown Pittsburgh. The physicians at this site formed a collaborative care agreement with Dr. Hildegard Berdine. Patients at this site are referred to the pharmacist for hypertension, diabetes, obesity, cholesterol management, smoking cessation and lifestyle coaching.

- The Duquesne University Mylan School of Pharmacy Academic Research Center for Pharmacy Care offers a broad range of health and wellness screening services, including blood pressure, body composition analysis, lipids, blood glucose, hemoglobin and a variety of other non-invasive tests. The Center uses screening tools to identify at-risk patients in need of physician referral, disease management, lifestyle coaching, and medication therapy management services. Director, Dr. Suzanne Higginbotham.

Pharmacy Continuing Professional Development

Director: Dr. Kathy DeRose

Duquesne University Mylan School of Pharmacy provides quality pharmacy continuing education programs for Duquesne University alumni, preceptors, faculty grant recipients and other health care affiliates. The goal of these programs is to ensure and maintain the standards and criteria for the continued accreditation of Pharmacy Continuing Education, encourage innovation in teaching pharmacy continuing education programs and emphasize learning outcomes. In the 2009-2010 year, Duquesne University Mylan School of Pharmacy Continuing Education Programs delivered 41 CPE programs that included 1,070 participants. Programs have traditionally been offered in collaboration with Medco Healthcare Solutions, Value Drug and the Duquesne University School of Pharmacy Alumni Association.

Under the direction of Michael E. Mermigas, R.Ph., several continuing dental education programs were offered. An Anesthesia/IV Sedation course for dentists and dental office teams was offered to 149 participants for the first time during Spring 2009.

Kappa Psi

History
Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical Fraternity was founded in 1879 at the Russell Military Academy in New Haven, Conn. Initially, it accepted both pharmacy and medical students, but this changed in 1924 to better serve the needs of each respected profession. Kappa Psi is the oldest and largest pharmaceutical fraternity in the world. It currently includes 72 active collegiate chapters and 43 active graduate chapters in the United States and Canada.

The Delta Epsilon Chapter of Kappa Psi at Duquesne University was founded in 1967 in response to the wishes of two Duquesne alumni and some of the Duquesne faculty. Responding to an increased number of women entering the pharmacy profession, Delta Epsilon amended... its constitution in 1986 and began accepting women. Today, Kappa Psi is the only co-ed professional pharmacy fraternity at Duquesne.

Mission
Kappa Psi strives to be a fraternal organization for the mutual benefit of all the members; to advance the profession of pharmacy — educationally, fraternally and socially; to instill industry, sobriety, fellowship and high ideals in its members, and to foster scholarship and pharmaceutical research. Kappa Psi seeks to serve the Pittsburgh region and the Duquesne community, and members draw strength from each other, our past members and ourselves. We thrive by passing on our traditions to future members and by improving the profession of pharmacy by practicing the ideals of our fraternity.

Alumni Achievement Award – Recent Graduate Jeffrey J. Neigh, Pharm.D. (P’00), BCPS, MAJ, MS

MAJ Jeff Neigh is a 2000 graduate from the Mylan School of Pharmacy at Duquesne University. Following graduation, Jeff accepted a commission and came on to active duty as a Medical Service Corps Officer in the United States Army. Now, 10 years later, he still proudly wears the uniform in his most recent position as Chief of Pharmacy at Eisenhower Army Medical Center in Fort Gordon, Georgia.

Jeff began his professional career working as the Assistant Chief of the Ambulatory Pharmacy operation at Fort Hood, Texas. Following six months working in this high volume operation, averaging 5,000 prescriptions daily, Jeff transitioned to his new role as Chief of the Inpatient Pharmacy. He would spend the next three years managing the day-to-day operation of a 24/7 inpatient pharmacy supporting a 200 bed community hospital. In the middle of this time, Jeff deployed to Kuwait with the 21st Combat Support Hospital as their Chief of Pharmacy in support of Operation Enduring Freedom.

In 2004, wishing to expand his clinical knowledge, Jeff applied for and was accepted into an ASHP accredited residency program in Hospital Pharmacy Practice. This program was a joint endeavor run by the Army (Brooke Army Medical Center) and Air Force (Wilford Hall Medical Center) in San Antonio, Texas. It was also during this time that Jeff was selected president of the Army Pharmacy Junior Officer Council, a group of officers who represent and advocate for the mentoring and developmental needs of new pharmacy officers. Following residency, Jeff successfully passed his board certification exam in Pharmacotherapy and took over his new position as Chief of Clinical Pharmacy at Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio, Texas. There, Jeff ran the Medication Use Evaluation Committee, oversaw the residency program, saw patients as a credentialed provider for Hypertension, Hyperlipidemia and Diabetes and did clinical rounds with the medical teams on the Burn and Surgical Intensive Care Units.

2007 began the next transition. Jeff headed to Fort Rucker, Alabama, for four months to serve as the Chief of Pharmacy at Lyster Army Health Clinic before heading to Augusta, Georgia, in 2008 to be the Deputy Director of Pharmacy at Eisenhower Army Medical Center and its $33 million pharmacy budget. He assists the chief in the day-to-day operations of the ambulatory, inpatient, supply, oncology, and nuclear pharmacy missions. He also works closely with the wounded warrior and deployment medication programs. In December 2009, Jeff took the reins as interim chief until Summer 2010 when the new chief arrived.

Jeff is blessed to have his beautiful wife Jessica (also a pharmacist!) and lovely daughter Katie in his life. He attributes all the success in his life to those around him. It’s always great when you can wake up in the morning each day and look forward to going to work because you have such great people to work with. Jeff hopes that each and every one of you have a Superfantastic day!

Alumni Highlights

Pennsylvania Pharmacists Association Awards
Pharmacist of the Year

Donna Hazel, R.Ph. (P’79), Manager, Recruitment Central Division for Rite Aid, brings betterment to the profession of pharmacy with her involvement and commitment to bother her work and also to multiple organizations. Throughout her career with Rite Aid Pharmacy, Hazel has functioned as a staff pharmacist, pharmacy manager, pharmacy district manager and regional recruiter. She serves to interview, hire and mentor pharmacists and interns, providing support to help them succeed professionally. Hazel organizes other social events such as dinners for interns, golf outings and alumni luncheons to encourage professional interaction.
Hazel has also served for both PPA and Allegheny County Pharmacists Association as current president of ACPA and Southwest Director for PPA. Hazel worked to ensure that the affiliation of ACPA and PPA would occur and that it would be successful. For ACPA she indemnified and remedied two critical financial issues. Hazel is entering her third term as ACPA president in July. Hazel turned what could have been the end of ACPA into the beginning of an affiliation that will hopefully set the stage for additional county organizations to affiliate with PPA. She has worked successfully toward the strengthening of both organizations.

Distinguished Young Pharmacist

Maria Osborne, PharmD. ('03), of UPMC St. Margaret in Pittsburgh, PA, has significantly impacted PPA and the practice of pharmacy in Pennsylvania through research she conducted during her PGY1 Community Practice Residency at the University of Pittsburgh. Osborne’s research focused on developing a state-wide network of patient care pharmacists, enabling patient care pharmacists to join together and approach state-wide payers, such as Pennsylvania Medicaid, and propose coverage of medication therapy management for Medicaid members.

After her residency, Osborne accepted a novel position with UPMC St. Margaret as part of a research study to evaluate the clinical and economic outcomes of having a pharmacist in a physician’s office. She works in two physician practices, where she has integrated herself and become a significant part of their health care team. In addition to her research, Osborne is an active member of the Pennsylvania Pharmacists Association, co-chairing the New Practitioners Advisory Group, working diligently to expand this group and recruit New Practitioner members.

Preceptor of the Year

Robert L. Maher Jr., PharmD, as Assistant Professor of Pharmacy Practice at Duquesne University Mylan School of Pharmacy and preceptor in the community practice setting, has proved to be an outstanding preceptor who has undoubtedly contributed to many students’ pharmacy careers. Students describe his site as exciting due to his methods of active learning. For example, Maher requires students to “get in the habit of being able to discuss the mechanism of action and three key patient counseling points that should be relayed to the patient about each medication.” If a student does not know the answer to a question, the student is required to retrieve the information. In this way Maher builds confidence in his students and their abilities as a health care professionals. Maher was nominated by two of his former student pharmacists, Valerie Stefan and Emily Howanek.

George H. Searight Memorial Award Winner

Donna Hazel, R.Ph. (P’79), Manager, Recruitment Central Division for Rite Aid, received this award due to the tireless work she has done with the Pennsylvania Pharmacists Association as Southwest Director and Allegheny County Pharmacists Association (ACPA) as President. She has been a driving force in the affiliation of PPA and ACPA, a partnership that is already demonstrating synergistic benefits to both organizations. In the course of her position as a member of the Board of Directors of ACPA, Hazel kept the need to both increase membership and reduce operating overhead in the forefront. Now, concluding her second term as ACPA President, she has succeeded admirably in both categories. Donna will be entering her third term as ACPA President in July. With her goal being the survival of ACPA, the zeal she gave toward supporting the PPA and ACPA affiliation was contagious and converted any skeptics to support the merger.
We acknowledge and appreciate the generosity of all of our alumni donors. Every effort has been made to accurately list their names and donations. To report an error, please call 412.396.6040.
