SUBJECTIVITY IN QUESTION
Keynote Speaker: Lisa Guenther
Associate Professor of Philosophy
Vanderbilt University

10:00 - 11:00 Roundtable: Being a woman scholar
11:15 - 12:00 The Art of Becoming One’s Self: Imagination, Narrative and the Constitution of the Subject (Lior Levy, University of Haifa)
12:00 - 12:45 Touch, Time, and the Space of Subjectivity in Merleau-Ponty and Serres (Liane Carlson, Columbia University)
12:45 - 2:00 Lunch Break
2:00 - 2:45 Receptive Autonomy (Katherine Glanz, Johns Hopkins University)
2:45 - 3:30 Superposition as a Plane of Immanence: Migrant Women, Alternative Figurations, and the New Collectivity (Ljudmila Popovich, University of Colorado at Boulder)
3:30 - 4:15 Maternity/the Maternal Acknowledge Alterity (Daniella Polyak, New School for Social Research)
4:15 - 4:30 Coffee Break
4:30 Keynote: Subjectivity Behind Bars: Social Death and Natal Resistance (Lisa Guenther, Vanderbilt University)

Sponsored by National Endowment for the Humanities, Critical Race Theory Speaker Series (Coordinator: Dr. George Yancy), McAnulty College of Liberal Arts, Department of Philosophy, Women’s and Gender Studies, Office of Student Involvement