

CENTER FOR AFRICAN STUDIES

Understanding U.S. – Africa Relations: An Ethiopian Perspective

Thursday, November 4, 12–2 p.m. | Virtual Event

This presentation uncovers what has been happening in Ethiopia for the last year in relation to its internal conflict and the responses of the international community. The psychological trauma being experienced by the Ethiopian children, women, men, and the elderly, and the socio-economic crisis happening in the country will be discussed.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Yemataw Wondie Yehualashet

Professor of Psychology at the University of Gondar, Ethiopia
Visiting Scholar in Residence, Center for African Studies, Duquesne University

RSVP Wednesday, November 3, 2021

A Zoom link will be sent via email the morning of the event.

RSVP at CASvirtual21

For additional information, call 412.396.2651 or email
africanstudies@duq.edu.

 DUQUESNE UNIVERSITY
duq.edu/cas