

Duquesne University Athletic Training

Placement Rates within 6 Months of Graduation

Class	Number of Students in Cohort	Employed as Athletic Trainer	Employment Rate as AT (%)	Employed as Other	Employment Rate as Other (%)	Not Employed	Not Employed Rate (%)
2020	4*	1	25%	2	50%	1	25%
2019	10	7	70%	NA	NA	3^	30%
2018	14	12	86%	1 †	7%	1 †	7%

* As of posting, 50% of students were scheduled to take the BOC exam in October 2020. (50% passed the BOC exam in first attempt). One student currently has an Exercise Science Program graduate assistantship; two are currently working in the strength & conditioning industry.

^ One student was pursuing a degree in Physical Therapy; two pursuing degree in Occupational Therapy

† One student was employed in a hospital setting; one was engaged in job search (now employed as AT)

Graduation Rates

Class	Graduation Rate
2020	36.4%
2019	35.0%
2018	60.0%

Three Year Aggregate = 43.8%

Graduation rate reflects the number of students accepted into the program as first time, first-year students that successfully completed the program. (This number does not include students that transferred into the program from within or outside the University.)

Transfer Student Graduation Rates

Class	Graduation Rate
2020	0.0%
2019	75.0%
2018	83.3%

Three Year Aggregate = 52.8%

Transfer student graduation rates reflects the number of students accepted into the program as transfer students that successfully completed the program. (Four students transferred into the program for class 2020 and either transferred into another program or withdrew from University for personal reasons)

Freshmen Retention Rates

Class	Retention Rate
2023	75.0%
2022	50.0%
2021	70.6%

Three Year Aggregate = 65.2%

Retention rates reflect the number of first time, first-year students that proceed from the first year into the second year of the program.