

CUBAN AMERICAN RELATIONS

MIGUEL FRAGA

Date: Wednesday, February 1

Time: 1 to 2:30 p.m.

Place: Room 119, Duquesne Union

A light lunch will be served

Miguel Fraga, first secretary of the newly established Cuban Embassy in Washington D.C. Photo Bill Hackwell

McAnulty College and Graduate School of Liberal Arts, Political Science Department, and International Relations Program, are hosting a talk by Miguel Fraga about the relations between Cubans and Americans.

Mr. Fraga is currently the first secretary of the Cuban Embassy in Washington, DC. The embassy opened in 2015 with the re-establishment of diplomatic relations between the US and Cuba. This is after more than 50 years since severing ties in 1961.