REFUND SCHEDULE

A student remains enrolled in a course until the Law School Registrar’s Office receives written notification of intent to withdraw from the course. Students who withdrawal up to May 24th will receive 100% refund. Afterwards, a student withdrawing during the first week of summer school will receive a tuition refund of 65%. Thereafter, refunds are no longer issued.

GRADES/DISMISSAL

Grades earned during Summer 2021 will be averaged together with grades for the following 2021-2022 academic year. If a student is academically dismissed subsequent to completing the summer session course(s), the grade earned in the summer session will not become part of his/her academic history. The student will be involuntarily withdrawn from the summer session course(s) and will be unable to sit for any examinations. The student will be entitled to a full tuition refund.

SUMMER SCHOOL POLICY

Students are limited to seven (7) summer school credits throughout your law school education including credits received from clinical programs and clerkships in the summer. Credits taken at other ABA law schools in the summer are also included in the above stated policy. Summer credits do not reduce the minimum credit requirements for full-time or part-time residency in the following semester. Article IV: 4.05 <https://www.law.duq.edu/academics/policies-procedures>

The course introduces the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) with a concentration on the Sales Article, Article 2. Related statutes such as the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (CCISG) and the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act are also introduced. The course analyzes express and implied warranties, the cumulation and conflict of warranties and the disclaimer of warranties as well as limitations of remedy and failure of essential purpose. Rejection, acceptance and revocation of acceptance are carefully explored along with prospective nonperformance and adequate assurances of performance. The coverage of risk allocation includes risk of loss, the concept of Identification and casualty to identified goods, commercial impracticability and excusable nonperformance. The last portion of the course is devoted to a detailed analysis of buyer and seller remedies under the UCC with attention to a clear understanding of direct, incidental and consequential damages. Throughout the course CISG applications are identified when they differ substantially from UCC applications.
