Pennsylvania Pharmacists Association Installs New Board Director

Harrisburg, PA --- The Pennsylvania Pharmacists Association (PPA) recently installed Matthew Rozic, 2022 PharmD Candidate, Duquesne University School of Pharmacy as the 2020-2021 Student Director West, during PPA's 2020 First-Ever Virtual Annual Conference held on October 1, 2020 via a live broadcast.

Rozic attends Duquesne University School of Pharmacy where he is pursuing a Doctor of Pharmacy degree with an anticipated graduation in 2022. He is currently a Pharmacy Intern at St. Elizabeth Youngstown Hospital in Youngstown, OH. On the Duquesne University campus, he is a member of the American Pharmacist Association Academy of Student Pharmacists and Phi Delta Chi Pharmacy Fraternity. In his spare time, Rozic volunteers with Global Links, a medical relief and development organization for resource-poor communities.

Other student positions that were installed are as follows:

Landon Bordner – Student Director East

About The Pennsylvania Pharmacists Association

Founded in 1878, the Pennsylvania Pharmacists Association is a professional membership organization of more than 2,300 pharmacists and pharmacy students across the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, representing almost all facets of pharmacy practice. As the leading voice of pharmacy in Pennsylvania, it promotes the profession through advocacy, education, and communication to enhance patient care and public health.
