

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

TO: PRESIDENT KENNETH G. GORMLEY

It is my honor to join with faculty, staff, students, and alumni to congratulate you on your appointment as the president of Duquesne University

During your impressive tenure at Duquesne University School of Law, you have exemplified leadership, professionalism, and a commitment to the practice and advancement of constitutional law studies. Throughout your career, you have played an integral role in law education by sharing your extensive knowledge with others as an accomplished author and professor, as well as your service to the judiciary. Now, as president of this prestigious university, you have the opportunity to make a difference in the lives of countless students. Since 1878, Duquesne University has been instrumental in higher education in the commonwealth, addressing the educational and spiritual needs of its students to promote scholastic excellence. I am certain that your innovation and expertise will guide this university to continue its profound legacy of producing men and women of integrity. I look forward to watching Duquesne University thrive and prosper in the years to come.

As Governor, and on behalf of all citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, I am pleased to congratulate you on your appointment as the 13th President of Duquesne University. Please accept my best wishes for continued success.

Tom Wolf
TOM WOLF
Governor

September 22, 2016