

Francis before the Sultan by Stefano di Giovanni

Fruitful Interreligious Dialogue

A symposium celebrating the 8th centenary of St. Francis' encounter with Malik al-Kamil and the 10th anniversary of the Consortium for Christian–Muslim Dialogue

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 3, 2019 | 4:30–6:30 P.M.
Africa Room, Student Union | Duquesne University

KEYNOTE

Kathleen Warren, O.S.F. (author of Daring to Cross the Threshold)

“The Hidden Wisdom of Francis and the Sultan:
After 800 Years, Are We Ready for It?”

Followed by a panel discussion and a Q&A with

- Vincent Stegmann, C.S.Sp.,
- Rabbi Barbara Symons, and
- Kathleen Warren, O.S.F.,
- moderated by James Swindal, Ph.D.

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

➔ duq.edu/ccmd

Organized by the Consortium for Christian–Muslim Dialogue (CCMD) in conjunction with Heritage Week, with generous funding from Islamic Relief USA (IRUSA). Also sponsored by the Division of Mission and Identity, the Office of the Provost, the Center for African Studies, the Honors College, and the Theology Department.

