

Elena-Daniela (Dana) NEACSU

Director, Duquesne Center for Legal Information (DCLI)
Associate Professor of Legal Research Skills, Duquesne Klein School of Law

EXPERIENCE

❖ Management:

- Administer the budgets, personnel, services, and strategic priorities of two libraries: Duquesne Center for Legal Information (DCLI) & Allegheny County Law Library (ACLL);
- Prepare mission statements; strategic plans, deliverables, annual budgets and annual reports for both DCLI & ACLL;
- Directly supervise middle managers, build a work environment of belonging and trust, and promote professional development;
- Oversee the creation and dissemination of all library publications (symposia; webinars; YouTube channel; DCLIBeat News);
- Negotiated an extension of the ACLL management contract with the Allegheny County Board & later implemented the end of the management contract with the county;
- Led and directed all aspects of the Columbia Law School Library's public services functions, including reference, instruction, access, and inter-library loan services; evaluated policies, procedures, and workflows; lead search committees & trained new reference librarians; served as a member of the Planning Group charged with overall administration, strategic planning, and management of the day-to-day library operations; liaise-ed with CLS faculty to coordinate CLS' first library-published book Law in the Time of COVID-19 \(2000\);
- Engage building esthetics in social and racial justice discourse;
- Imagine and lead the implementation of new ways to use and invest in digital technology resources for scholarship production, archival & dissemination.

❖ Collection:

- Updated the DCLI & ACLL mission statement and collection development policy to meet new digital challenges;
- Approve all acquisitions and negotiate all contracts with vendors;
- Ensure library holdings are available to all patrons according to the libraries' mission statement and strategic plan;
- Assure proper stewardship and ensure the proper archival methods to preserve and highlight the collection through scholarly programs.

❖ Development:

- Ensure the efficient functioning of Duquesne's Center for Legal Information as a pillar of intellectual life;
- Steward the creation and development of the ACLL's Information Center for Elder Justice with programs and publications.

❖ Scholarship and Teaching:

- Lead the national Conference on Legal Information Scholarship and Teaching (CLIST) (pre-AALL);
- Participate in professional organizations (ALA, IFLA, AALL, ACR);
- Produce high quality scholarship, deliver presentations, and provide other services to the academy, community, or legal profession.

❖ Internal and External Representation:

- Partner with the University Library and departments across the university on initiatives involving justice, diversity, equality, and inclusion;
- Serve on Law School and University committees (at Duquesne and Columbia University).

❖ Research Centers and Outreach:

- Work with appropriate faculty committees (e.g., Curriculum Committee) to support academic matters as requested;
- Have enlarged the scope of DCLI's role in the scholarship production and communication enterprise through legal talk series; symposia, and digital commons presence;
- Collaborate with other Duquesne faculty and staff to establish a strong learning environment and support the law school's mission.
