RELATED PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

2021-22 Consultant, Allegheny County Department of Human Services (DHS), Housing Mobility Demonstration Project

With funding from The Pittsburgh Foundation, I worked with DHS as a consultant on the development and implementation of a local housing mobility program that will offer support services to low-income families with assistance through the Housing Choice Voucher program who wish to move to low-poverty neighborhoods.

2013-16 Study Coordinator, Healthy Living, Healthy Learning, Healthy Lives Project

Funded by the NIH (National Institute on Minority Health and Health Disparities), this community-based participatory research (CBPR) project engaged academic (PI: John Wallace, University of Pittsburgh's School of Social Work) and community partner, Homewood Children's Village, to investigate disparities in children's health, with a particular focus on asthma. We completed a community assessment including participatory concept mapping and in-depth interviews with adult and youth residents, and a survey of caregivers of children with asthma from Homewood.

2014 Consultant, Susan Popkin, The Urban Institute

Local site contact; assisted in the planning phase for a Housing Opportunities and Services Together (HOST) project in the Oak Hill community of Pittsburgh. Conducted interviews with local stakeholders and service providers and assisted in fund-raising efforts.

- 2005-07 Research Assistant, James Spillane, Institute for Policy Research, Northwestern University
Conducted structured observations and cognitive interviews of school administrators and teachers as part of the Distributed Leadership Study in an urban middle school in Chicago; validated a log instrument, and co-authored an article.
- 2003-04 Research Assistant, Kathryn Edin, Institute for Policy Research, Northwestern University
Conducted in-depth qualitative interviews with mothers and youth from public housing in Chicago and Baltimore who participated in the Moving to Opportunity and the Gautreaux Two housing mobility programs; analyzed data; and, authored articles for publication.
- 2003-04 Research Assistant, Pamela Holcomb, The Urban Institute
Conducted in-depth qualitative interviews with welfare office staff and local group leaders on access to benefits by immigrant and refugee populations; analyzed program application forms; co-authored a report to DHHS; and, coded data on the childcare subsidy and cash welfare systems.
- 1999-00 Research Assistant, Andrew Cherlin, Johns Hopkins University & William Julius Wilson, Harvard University
Assisted in the survey cleaning and documentation for Welfare, Children, and Families: A Three City Study, and researched housing policies for a published report.
