

— THE 22ND —
Annual Forensic Science and Law Symposium

Now Accepting Abstracts – Due Friday, Oct. 27

Showcase your JFK assassination research at the annual symposium's poster presentation. Poster sessions will take place in the main symposium event space in the Duquesne Union Ballroom.

- Abstract submissions due Friday, Oct. 27.
- All presenters will be notified by Thursday, Nov. 2.
- All presenters must attend the symposium in person.

Submission Requirements

- All submissions must be sent by 5 p.m. (EST) on Friday, Oct. 27 to Ben Wecht via email at wechtben@duq.edu.
- All submissions must be connected to the JFK assassination.
- All symposium attendees, including students, may submit a research poster abstract for consideration.
- Poster abstracts may be submitted by individuals or groups. (Only one poster per team should be submitted.)
- Poster abstract submissions may come from any of the following academic disciplines:
 - Forensic Science/Investigation
 - Medicine
 - Criminal Law
 - U.S. History
 - U.S. Political Science
 - Investigative Journalism
- Poster abstract submissions must include the following information OR be the completed poster (PDF) that will be presented.
 - Title: A concise title that clearly indicates the content of the abstract
 - Author: Full name, academic degree(s), and professional affiliation(s)
 - Abstract text:
 - Background: The problem under investigation or a hypothesis
 - Methods: The methods and materials used to conduct the research
 - Results: The essential results obtained in summary form
 - Conclusions: A summary of research findings supported by the results
- All selected posters must be sized 36"x44" (See Examples & Tips from Duquesne University's Gumberg Library)
- All selected poster presenters (one minimum/poster) must attend in person to present the research during designated times throughout the symposium.