Welcome!

An urban lifestyle with small-town friendliness.

Grab a bite in Bloomfield, Pittsburgh's Little Italy. People-watch and brush up on your "Pittsburghese" in the Strip District (yes, we've got our own lingo!). Walk or bike along riverfront trails located right in the city. Pittsburgh's charming neighborhoods dot a unique topography of rivers and hillsides with amazing cultural and recreational destinations throughout.

Enjoy the view

A picturesque campus in a city of opportunity.

Duquesne's park-like, 50-acre campus sits atop a hill overlooking downtown Pittsburgh's stunning glass and steel skyline. Get comfortable in one of our many outdoor study spots as you take in the view: a growing hub for technology, health care, financial services and startups. Hundreds of great employers will be eager for the fresh thinking you'll offer as a Duquesne graduate—and many are right down the street.

HEAR FROM RECENT GRADS

▶ Thomas R. Kline School of Law of Duquesne University Empowered to Lead. Prepared for What's Next.

"It was really important for me to go to a law school where I felt like I belonged and was supported, and I felt that at Duquesne Kline."

-Fallon Howard
Law, '23

▶ School of Science and Engineering Science with Purpose.

"Throughout the Ph.D. program, I honed my critical thinking abilities, became familiar with a wide range of techniques, and learned how to formulate and address research questions effectively. As I transition to a new model and tackle different research questions from my dissertation work, the expertise I acquired in the Patton-Vogt lab has proven to be invaluable."

-William King
Biological Sciences Ph.D., '23

▶ Graduate School of Liberal Arts Diversify Your Thinking. Reimagine Our World.

"There's something unique and special about psychology at Duquesne. The professors don't teach you what to think, but how to think. My time at Duquesne prepared me by giving me a deep foundation I could apply to my career. Before graduating, I had already made placements in clinics."

-Garri Hovannhisyan
Clinical Psychology Ph.D., '23

▶ John G. Rangos, Sr. School of Health Sciences Built to Impact the Lives of Others.

"Being able to work full time and complete the program has been an awesome challenge and I appreciate the ability to balance a demanding work schedule and personal responsibilities while completing the program."

-Megan Pisone Ott
Master of Health Administration, '22

▶ School of Pharmacy
Practical Approach to Meaningful Care.

“My dream job is to work in the drug supply chain industry, helping health care systems to run more efficiently. Through my Duquesne education, I better understand both the clinical and business sides of the industry.”

-Michael Chieu
Pharm.D., '23

▶ Graduate School of Business
The Business of Difference Making.®

“Being a mother, pharmacist, leader in professional organizations, and MBA graduate, I aim to continue my journey of uniting individuals from various professions and backgrounds and educating future leaders.”
