THE CURIOSITY AND TENACITY

that drive our faculty's research and creativity make their classrooms exciting places to be, and they're equally enthusiastic about your future. They feel entrusted with your goals, and it is their joy to help you pursue them.

You'll think beyond what's right in front of you—discovering new possibilities in your major and seeing how your chosen career can connect to so many other fields in meaningful ways. It's the perspective you need to make an even bigger impact. After all, success isn't just about the grades you earn or the career you're preparing for. It's about the person you become—one who is prepared for anything.

A FOUNDATION FOR SUCCESS

We know that general education courses at most universities are organized around required courses in specific subjects, but our Bridges Common Learning Experience is focused on you and the knowledge and skills in demand by employers.

Because of its flexible design, Bridges can help you pursue credentials, certificates, minors or additional majors. Stacking credentials can diversify your skill sets and expand opportunities for employment or graduate study.

No matter your major, our Bridges courses make up approximately one third (more than one year!) of your college curriculum. That's a big chunk of your undergraduate college experience! At Duquesne University, we want your Bridges experience to prepare you for anything—and to be time well spent.

PRINCETON REVIEW, 2023

Choose your own adventure in
A CITY THAT HAS IT ALL.

I'm from Honduras originally. I feel very accepted, and I loved it at Duquesne. When I first moved there I biked a lot, and that's how I got to know the city. I learned about the Point and the South Side trails. You get to enjoy nice weather and see beautiful things. “

SELVIN HERNANDEZ, '22
Ph.D. Biomedical Engineering Student
Case Western Reserve University

ANY TIME you take a walk or jog or move around the city, you're not just getting your mind and body strong. You travel the same paths as the innovators, visionaries and determined spirits who built our university and who continue to reimagine Pittsburgh and create a better world. Here, you benefit from where we've been while helping us reach what's next.

We're a city of 90 diverse neighborhoods where everyone can be themselves and experience other cultures. We're a city where strangers smile at you on the sidewalk and use a "language" called Pittsburghese to order Primanti's sandwiches and cheer on the home teams (beyond DU, that includes Steelers, Penguins and Pirates, Pittsburgh's three major sports teams!).

duq.edu/pgh

FOOD, FUN, ARTS AND CULTURE— all right next to campus.

ORDER GIANT PANCAKES for Sunday brunch, pick up fresh cannoli from the Italian market and buy party supplies for your roommate's birthday celebration—all within a few blocks.

Past meets the present, and historical buildings house startups set to change the world and employ our graduates. You can take a single staircase to go from our parklike campus to some of the best restaurants and retail in the 'burgh. Three rivers and hundreds of miles of trails encourage you to take a study break and get some fresh air.

NORTH SIDE
ACTION-PACKED EVENTS.

It's all homeruns and touchdowns on the North Side with football and baseball games in state-of-the-art stadiums on the river's edge. When the home teams aren't playing, their venues are home to concerts featuring world-famous musical acts. Bravo!

ALLEGHENY RIVER

CULTURAL DISTRICT
LET'S PLAY.

Whether you prefer music, theater or dance (or maybe all of the above!), you'll find ample opportunities to immerse yourself in the arts. The 14-square-block Cultural District encompasses more than 90 retail shops, 50 dining establishments, seven world-class theaters, eight public parks and art installations, and a dozen art galleries.

THE HILL DISTRICT
HOME TO HISTORY.

Visit the birthplace of famed playwright August Wilson on your own, or celebrate his legacy alongside neighbors and friends at the annual block party with food, games and outdoor performances. While you're there, pay homage to Pittsburgh's jazz scene. Nationally known artists like Louis Armstrong and Duke Ellington made the Hill District a regular stop on national tours!

MARKET SQUARE
CATCH A BITE, OR THREE.

Pedestrian-friendly Market Square is the perfect spot to try new restaurants or revisit your favorites. Depending on the season, you can visit the Market Square Farmers Market or the Christmas Village. And don't forget your ice skates! In winter months, you can skate nearby while taking in some of the city's most iconic architecture. Duquesne sponsors an annual ice skating night just for Duquesne students!

LIBERTY AVE.

THE POINT
RELAX.

Watch the boats float by, go for a run or set up a picnic with friends by the water. Point State Park is where Pittsburgh's three rivers meet, and it serves as home to a giant fountain, the annual Three Rivers Arts Festival and the Fort Pitt Museum.

OHIO RIVER

PPG PAINTS ARENA
HOCKEY. CONCERTS. GOOD TIMES.

Trust us, you'll want to be there when the puck and the microphone drop. The arena is the place to be for professional ice hockey and performers of all genres—and it's a stone's throw from campus. So scoop up those student-rush hockey tickets (yes, they're discounted!), rally your friends for the next big concert and simply cross the street to build memories that last a lifetime.

FIFTH AVE.

FORBES AVE.

SOUTH SIDE
AN ECLECTIC COLLECTION.

With 15 blocks of Victorian architecture, it's no wonder the South Side was named a National Historic District. Boutiques, restaurants, galleries, theater and live music venues abound. This lively neighborhood treasure is just a single staircase from campus!

MONONGAHELA RIVER

DOWNTOWN
WORK HARD. PLAY HARD.

You may be working hard at your internship, but it sure is easy to get there. Travel a few blocks from campus and you have access to Fortune 500 companies, non-profit organizations and startups—all ready to mentor talented DU students. Don't forget to have some fun and treat yourself after work. Shopping, delicious desserts and yes, Primanti's sandwiches, are just outside your office door.

Proud to be in Pittsburgh.
PROUD TO BE A DUQUESNE DUKE.

WE'VE GOT TONS OF SCHOOL PRIDE—it's evident in the stands at our Division I athletics games and on the hands of the thousands of alumni who wear our instantly recognizable red ring. Our cheers thunder throughout the beautiful UPMC Cooper Fieldhouse and span the distance of Rooney Field. You'll find us in red and blue face paint, waving pompoms and high-fiving our friends. We're always ready to support our athlete-classmates and the school that we love.

We know you'll love it here, too. School pride isn't just about athletics—it's in everything we do. Look out your residence hall window any time and you'll see Duquesne gear dotting Academic Walk (we call it A-walk).

But more important than our red and blue sweatshirts and hats, our students live every day in pursuit of their goals and of being part of something bigger than themselves. Through experiential learning and service projects, they honor Duquesne's purpose, working side-by-side with neighbors in authentic collaborations. We mobilize our school spirit to create a future that everyone can share.
