YOUR POTENTIAL
OUR GRADUATE PROGRAMS
You have a good sense of what you want to achieve and the impact you want to make on the world. We'll add depth, discipline, professionalism, and a greater sense of purpose.

A Duquesne University graduate degree is an investment in you. It’s a learning lifestyle; an education that’s second-to-none; and it’s full of opportunities to grow in a city that never stops looking forward.

IT’S TIME FOR BIGGER GOALS.
Today, Duquesne has nearly 3,300 graduate students from around the world studying in more than 90 graduate programs at the professional, master’s and doctoral levels in:

- Business
- Education
- Health Sciences
- Law
- Liberal Arts
- Music
- Natural and Environmental Sciences
- Nursing
- Pharmacy
- Pre-Medical and Health Professions

We feel fortunate to be entrusted with your goals—which is why we’re ready with an education that’s everything you need, and more than you imagined.

Drawing on our Catholic Spiritan heritage, we’ll walk alongside you, connecting you with life-changing people and opportunities so you can build a professional path with purpose. It’s time to go beyond—and we’ll show you how.

DUQUESNE BY THE NUMBERS

We put you first.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Nearly</th>
<th>8,500</th>
<th>more than</th>
<th>90</th>
<th>100,000</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>total students</td>
<td>9 schools of study</td>
<td>doctoral, master’s, professional and certificate programs</td>
<td>alumni</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

You first.
Welcome!
An urban lifestyle with small-town friendliness.
Grab a bite in Bloomfield, Pittsburgh’s Little Italy. People-watch and brush up on your “Pittsburghese” in the Strip District (yes, we’ve got our own lingo). Walk or bike along waterfront trails located right in the city. Pittsburgh’s charming neighborhoods dot a unique topography of rivers and hillsides with amazing cultural and recreational destinations throughout.

Enjoy the view
A picturesque campus in a city of opportunity.
Duquesne’s park-like, 50-acre campus sits atop a hill overlooking downtown Pittsburgh’s towering glass and steel skyline. Get comfortable in one of our many outdoor study spots as you take in the view: a growing hub for technology, health care, financial services and startups. Hundreds of great employers will be eager for the fresh thinking you’ll offer as a Duquesne graduate—and many are right down the street.

Watch a video about Duquesne and Pittsburgh:

High-Ranking Pittsburgh
- Recently named the Best Big City in the Northeast on Money magazine’s annual “Best Places” list
- Named among the Top 5 Downtowns by Livability.com
- At #1 on LinkedIn’s list of best cities to launch your career
- WalletHub says Pittsburgh is one of the best cities for jobs
- Repeatedly ranked as one of America’s most livable cities and a top destination by National Geographic Traveler

And visit duq.edu/graduate-pittsburgh
Support for commuters

The Commuter Center on the first floor of the Duquesne Union is a comfortable, spacious lounge where you can study, mingle and socialize.

In the Center:
- Kitchen facilities
- Quiet study rooms
- Relaxing areas to catch some quick shut-eye

Additional commuter services:
- Activities
- Academic help
- Social connections
- Resources for off-campus housing

Learn more by visiting duq.edu/commuteraffairs
Or contact: commuteraffairs@duq.edu or 412.396.6690.
A University offering in-demand programs in a city that’s on the rise.

That’s why students from all over the globe choose Duquesne. They bring with them diverse experiences and points of view that enrich the educational experience for everyone. And as graduates find employment all over the world, Duquesne’s reputation for excellence reaches even farther.

Center for Global Engagement
The center guides international students through the admissions process. Later, their Cultural Ambassador program matches each incoming international student with a current student who serves as a dedicated resource. For international students who seek to improve their English language skills, Duquesne also offers an English as a Second Language Certificate Program.

You’re in good hands with our Center for Student Wellbeing.
Make an appointment at Health Services in the Duquesne Union, and be seen by a physician or nurses who can treat illness and injury, provide immunizations and allergy injections, and more. The center also offers free, confidential counseling services. Go to duq.edu/counseling for information about services including psychotherapy, crisis support, support groups, workshops and an interfaith meditation room.

50 STATES
80 COUNTRIES
AND A BROAD RANGE OF BACKGROUNDS AND EXPERIENCES
Gain hands-on experience at a research enterprise that consistently punches above its weight and puts students on the leading edge of knowledge, with initiatives in nano-medicine, public health, juvenile justice, historic preservation, and much more.

duq.edu/research

Duquesne University continues to be dedicated to building a better world. We aspire for our proposed College of Osteopathic Medicine to be among the most forward-thinking medical schools in the nation, addressing the two largest problems facing medicine today: a shortage of doctors in primary care disciplines and a system of pervasive disparities in health care, especially in underserved urban and rural communities. Our medical school will position Duquesne as more than just a national leader in medical education—it will build on our long tradition of serving people on the margins and building a world where everyone can prosper.
Center for Career Development: get help with your job search

Prepare for the job search through career workshops and seminars that focus on resume writing, interview techniques and job search strategies. The center also provides one-on-one sessions with career counselors who specialize in your academic area.

Duquesne alumni: connections that work

Duquesne alumni are leading professionals in every type of organization across the country and around the world, and they’re active in alumni chapters in major cities across the United States. This tight-knit community is available as a resource as you begin and enhance your career.

As a Duquesne alum, you’ll have complimentary access to professional development resources and services throughout your career.

More than 100,000 well-connected alumni

So connect with them on LinkedIn. Invite them to meet for coffee and conversation. They’d love to hear from you.

duq.edu/career-development

Find your niche in the workplace.

Many students pursue graduate education to become more effective in their current position or seek a promotion within their organization. Others use their graduate education to pursue new opportunities.

Throughout your professional life, we’ll always be in your corner. The relationships you make here—with your peers, faculty, and the entire Duquesne family—are supportive, inspiring, and never stop giving.

For students pursuing careers in academia, recent alumni are employed by colleges, universities and schools throughout the country.

duq.edu/graduate-careers

IS YOUR DREAM EMPLOYER ON THIS LIST?

Employers of recent master’s and doctoral graduates include:

- Google
- Microsoft
- PwC
- Boeing
- UPMC
- United States Steel
- Allegiant Air
- Allegheny Energy Services
- U.S. Steel

duq.edu/graduate-careers
Invest in yourself.

Types of Financial Aid
We'll work with you to make your graduate education affordable. For more information about these opportunities and financing your graduate education, visit duq.edu/graduate-financing and the department of your intended study. Here is a brief list of funding sources:

- Graduate and Teaching Assistantships
- Academic-Based Scholarships
- Loans
- Employment
- Outside Scholarships

Other Financial Options to Consider
Duquesne Monthly Payment Plan
The University offers five- and 12-month payment plans through CASHNet, a third-party vendor.
To enroll, visit duq.edu/student-accounts.

Employer Tuition Reimbursement
Many companies provide tuition reimbursement for their employees. Be sure to check with your benefits office.

Tuition
Tuition varies by program of study. Refer to duq.edu/grad-tuition for up-to-date, program-specific tuition information.
School of Law

Training ethical, practice-ready lawyers.

University provides nationally-ranked programs and clinics, coupled with small class sizes and plenty of opportunities for students to thrive. They have also gone above and beyond in working with me through some unique issues presented by my military service during law school.

- Devon Schoonover, Law, '20

School of Health Sciences

Make a difference...together.

"My classmates and I really became close. We would share notes, study guides and prepare for tests together. We had each other's backs, learning together in a really supportive environment. The same teamwork needed in sports was just as important to my classes.

- Emma Brinton, Physician Assistant Studies, '22

School of Pharmacy

Provide meaningful care.

"My favorite thing about Duquesne's pharmacy program is that they allow students to serve and interact with the community. The annual health and wellness fair allows students to teach the community about different disease states and offer health services.

- Shawntel Brown, Pharmacy, '21

Graduate School of Business

The business of difference making.

"I went to undergraduate school in a small coal town, so I had never been around like-minded individuals who think progressively about climate change and other sustainability issues until now. I couldn't be more impressed with my professors and cohort at Duquesne. This program is truly one of the best things to happen to me.

- Alec Watts, MBA Sustainable Practices, '20

---

Drawing on our Catholic Spiritan heritage, we'll walk alongside you, making sure your education is everything you need and more than you could ever have imagined.

Graduate School of Liberal Arts

Communicate clearly. Think critically.

"As a graduate student in the Corporate Communication program, I have the privilege of taking courses that integrate practical marketing experience with a mixture of theoretical courses that focus on developing us as ethical and critically thinking individuals. The practical experience, such as a simulated public relations and marketing consulting project, has provided me unparalleled knowledge to help further prepare me for the marketplace.

- Emily Suruda, Corporate Communication, '21

School of Education

Rigorous programs, outstanding support. Advance your career on your own terms.

"My research interests brought me to Duquesne because I have a social justice and vulnerable population research focus. I like that the online PhD program is asynchronous. You can do the coursework at your pace, along with the residency requirements so that you are able to fit your studies into your life. The faculty at Duquesne University are incredibly supportive of student learning. They are consistently available to students, and they are quick to respond to student needs.

- Monica Gola, MN, RN, CPMHN(c), Nursing PhD, '21

Graduate School of Liberal Arts

Communicate clearly. Think critically.

"As a graduate student in the Corporate Communication program, I have the privilege of taking courses that integrate practical marketing experience with a mixture of theoretical courses that focus on developing us as ethical and critically thinking individuals. The practical experience, such as a simulated public relations and marketing consulting project, has provided me unparalleled knowledge to help further prepare me for the marketplace.

- Emily Suruda, Corporate Communication, '21

School of Education

Rigorous programs, outstanding support. Advance your career on your own terms.

"My research interests brought me to Duquesne because I have a social justice and vulnerable population research focus. I like that the online PhD program is asynchronous. You can do the coursework at your pace, along with the residency requirements so that you are able to fit your studies into your life. The faculty at Duquesne University are incredibly supportive of student learning. They are consistently available to students, and they are quick to respond to student needs.

- Monica Gola, MN, RN, CPMHN(c), Nursing PhD, '21

Graduate School of Business

The business of difference making.

"I went to undergraduate school in a small coal town, so I had never been around like-minded individuals who think progressively about climate change and other sustainability issues until now. I couldn't be more impressed with my professors and cohort at Duquesne. This program is truly one of the best things to happen to me.

- Alec Watts, MBA Sustainable Practices, '20

---

Hear more from DU students.

duq.edu/bluffstories