Our admissions counselors are here to answer any questions you have.

Visit us
Schedule a guided campus visit online at duq.edu/visit or call 800.456.0590.

Contact Us
E-mail us
admissions@duq.edu

Call us
412.396.6222 or 800.456.0590

For a virtual guided tour, please visit duq.edu/tour

Contact Duquesne University
Our admissions counselors are here to answer any questions you have.

Visit us
Schedule a guided campus visit online at duq.edu/visit or call 800.456.0590.

E-mail us
admissions@duq.edu

Call us
412.396.6222 or 800.456.0590

For a virtual guided tour, please visit duq.edu/tour
Trinity Hall
West of the Administration Building sits Trinity Hall, the residence of the Spiritual Pierre who serve in the University as administrators and teachers.

Laval House
Laval House serves as the Spiritual Vocation Office and provides housing for visiting Spirituals and undergraduate students preparing for the priesthood. In the past, the building served as the University President’s Office and, prior to that, as a convent.

Academic Walk
Academic Walk, or “A-Walk,” the long pedestrian mall extending through the heart of campus, was once known as Vicky Street. As late as the 1950s, it was lined with row houses where successive waves of immigrants made their homes. As Duquesne grew, one by one these buildings became part of the University. They served as student housing, office space, and classrooms. Laval House is the last of these Vicky Street structures.

Academic Tour

1 Gumberg Library
Near the crest of Locust Street is the Gumberg Library, a five-story facility with holdings that include print and digital resources, an extensive collection of sound recordings and the School of Education’s Curriculum Center, as well as archival material collections.

2 Libermann Hall
Duquesne’s newest academic building is a thoroughly renovated eight-story structure housing the Bonavia Engineering (BME) program and veteran student enrollment services, as well as BME, Nursing and Occupational Therapy labs.

3 Rockwell Hall
Rockwell Hall houses the Pakomo-Dohah School of Business. This spacious 10-story building also houses the Business School’s state-of-the-art Investment Center, simulation labs, maker space, ideation suite and a Technology Center for all students. The Center for African Studies, the Psychology Department and Clinic, and other offices and facilities are also located here.

4 Mary Pappert School of Music
This building houses the classrooms and offices of the John G. Rangos, Sr., School of Health Sciences, including the school’s learning labs for the Athletic Training, Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy and Physician Assistant Studies programs.

5Ranges School of Health Sciences
This building houses the classrooms and offices of the John G. Rangos Sr., School of Health Sciences, including the school’s learning labs for the Athletic Training, Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy and Physician Assistant Studies programs.

6 College Hall
College Hall, a six-story building, is the home of the McAnulty College and Graduate School of Liberal Arts and houses most of its departments and faculties. Instructional facilities include computer labs, the University’s Writing Center, student TV and radio studios, and two large lecture halls.

7 Science Library
Home to the Mary Pappert School of Music, this building has more than classrooms, offices and practices spaces. Inside are electronic music studios, a keyboard lab and a Music Technology Center as well as the Pappert Center for Performance and Innovation, a technologically sophisticated and acoustically superb venue for performing, recording and rehearsing. The Pappert Center is a state-of-the-art visualization design with the latest digital equipment.

8 School of Law
The School of Law is housed in Edward J. Henry Hall and the John E. Murray Pavilion. The facility features research and study rooms, two large amphitheater lecture halls, interview rooms, seminar and conference areas, and three courtrooms. The fully computerized law library is the most accessible of its kind in the city of Pittsburgh.

9 Fisher Hall
Fisher Hall can be reached by a skywalk spanning Forbes Avenue. This building houses the work of Nursing on the fifth floor along with computer labs and offices and classrooms for the Health Sciences, Systems and Speech-Language Pathology programs, as well as the Speech-Language-Hearing Clinic, Exercise Physiology Lab, Occupational Performance Lab, Counseling and Wellness Center, and the departments of Theology, Modern Languages and Literatures, and Physics.

10 Recreation and Athletics Tour
Along with retail facilities, including Starbucks, Chick-fil-A Express, a computer store, a large study lounge, and PNC Bank ATM, the Duquesne Union houses recreational amenities, a bookstore, conference facilities, and several offices including Student Activities, Greens, Office of Diversity and Inclusion, Judicial Affairs, Commuter Affairs, the Career Center for Development, Freshman Year Registration and Disability Services, and Health Service and Center for Pharmacy Care.

11 Duquesne Chapel
Built in 1894, the Chapel of the Holy Spirit, which lies opposite the Bayer Learning Center. Renovated in 2008, it is the second oldest academic building on campus and at one time housed all of the school’s classrooms and offices as well as living quarters for students, faculty, and staff.

12 Old Main
Duquesne was founded in 1878 in rented rooms above a bakery in Pittsburgh’s historic Hill District neighborhood, which lies just north and west of campus. In 1886, Spiritual priests and brothers constructed the current Administration Building, known now as “Old Main,” of wooden beams and materials.

13 Science Hall
Next to Bayer Learning Center is the Richard King Mellon Science Hall. This four-story structure, dedicated in 1967, houses the departments of Biological Sciences and Chemistry, the laboratories for the School of Pharmacy. Instructional facilities include two large amphitheater-style lecture halls, each with a 250-person seating capacity, as well as well-equipped labs and a science computer facility.

14 College Hall
College Hall, a six-story building, is the home of the McAnulty College and Graduate School of Liberal Arts and houses most of its departments and faculties. Instructional facilities include computer labs, the University’s Writing Center, student TV and radio studios, and two large lecture halls.

15 Mary Pappert School of Music
Home to the Mary Pappert School of Music, this building has more than classrooms, offices and practices spaces. Inside are electronic music studios, a keyboard lab and a Music Technology Center as well as the Pappert Center for Performance and Innovation, a technologically sophisticated and acoustically superb venue for performing, recording and rehearsing. The Pappert Center is a state-of-the-art visualization design with the latest digital equipment.

16 Science Library
Home to the Mary Pappert School of Music, this building has more than classrooms, offices and practices spaces. Inside are electronic music studios, a keyboard lab and a Music Technology Center as well as the Pappert Center for Performance and Innovation, a technologically sophisticated and acoustically superb venue for performing, recording and rehearsing. The Pappert Center is a state-of-the-art visualization design with the latest digital equipment.

17 School of Law
The School of Law is housed in Edward J. Henry Hall and the John E. Murray Pavilion. The facility features research and study rooms, two large amphitheater lecture halls, interview rooms, seminar and conference areas, and three courtrooms. The fully computerized law library is the most accessible of its kind in the city of Pittsburgh.

18 Fisher Hall
Fisher Hall can be reached by a skywalk spanning Forbes Avenue. This building houses the work of Nursing on the fifth floor along with computer labs and offices and classrooms for the Health Sciences, Systems and Speech-Language Pathology programs, as well as the Speech-Language-Hearing Clinic, Exercise Physiology Lab, Occupational Performance Lab, Counseling and Wellness Center, and the departments of Theology, Modern Languages and Literatures, and Physics.

19 Recreation and Athletics Tour
Along with retail facilities, including Starbucks, Chick-fil-A Express, a computer store, a large study lounge, and PNC Bank ATM, the Duquesne Union houses recreational amenities, a bookstore, conference facilities, and several offices including Student Activities, Greens, Office of Diversity and Inclusion, Judicial Affairs, Commuter Affairs, the Career Center for Development, Freshman Year Registration and Disability Services, and Health Service and Center for Pharmacy Care.

20 Duquesne Chapel
Built in 1894, the Chapel of the Holy Spirit, which lies opposite the Bayer Learning Center. Renovated in 2008, it is the second oldest academic building on campus and at one time housed all of the school’s classrooms and offices as well as living quarters for students, faculty, and staff.

21 Old Main
Duquesne was founded in 1878 in rented rooms above a bakery in Pittsburgh’s historic Hill District neighborhood, which lies just north and west of campus. In 1886, Spiritual priests and brothers constructed the current Administration Building, known now as “Old Main,” of wooden beams and handmade bricks. It is the first structure to be built on campus and at one time housed all of the school’s classrooms and offices as well as living quarters for students and Spirituals.

22 Sunken Garden
Today, Old Main houses the Offices of Admissions and Financial Aid as well as the University’s executive and business offices and the Michael P. Weiner Learning Skills Center, which provides tutoring services for students making the transition from high school to college.

23 Duquesne Chapel
Built in 1894, the Chapel of the Holy Spirit, which lies adjacent to Old Main and where Masses are said daily, offers an atmosphere of spiritual reflection to people of all religious traditions. Its stained-glass windows were crafted in Munich, Germany.

24 Trinity Hall
West of the Administration Building sits Trinity Hall, the residence of the Spiritual Pierre who serve in the University as administrators and teachers.

25 Laval House
Laval House serves as the Spiritual Vocation Office and provides housing for visiting Spirituals and undergraduate students preparing for the priesthood. In the past, the building served as the University President’s Office and, prior to that, as a convent.

26 Academic Walk
Academic Walk, or “A-Walk,” the long pedestrian mall extending through the heart of campus, was once known as Vicky Street. As late as the 1950s, it was lined with row houses where successive waves of immigrants made their homes. As Duquesne grew, one by one these buildings became part of the University. They served as student housing, office space, and classrooms. Laval House is the last of these Vicky Street structures.

27 Academic Tour

1 Gumberg Library
Near the crest of Locust Street is the Gumberg Library, a five-story facility with holdings that include print and digital resources, an extensive collection of sound recordings and the School of Education’s Curriculum Center, as well as archival material collections.

2 Libermann Hall
Duquesne’s newest academic building is a thoroughly renovated eight-story structure housing the Bonavia Engineering (BME) program and veteran student enrollment services, as well as BME, Nursing and Occupational Therapy labs.

3 Rockwell Hall
Rockwell Hall houses the Pakomo-Dohah School of Business. This spacious 10-story building also houses the Business School’s state-of-the-art Investment Center, simulation labs, maker space, ideation suite and a Technology Center for all students. The Center for African Studies, the Psychology Department and Clinic, and other offices and facilities are also located here.

4 Mary Pappert School of Music
This building houses the classrooms and offices of the John G. Rangos, Sr., School of Health Sciences, including the school’s learning labs for the Athletic Training, Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy and Physician Assistant Studies programs.

5Ranges School of Health Sciences
This building houses the classrooms and offices of the John G. Rangos Sr., School of Health Sciences, including the school’s learning labs for the Athletic Training, Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy and Physician Assistant Studies programs.

6 College Hall
College Hall, a six-story building, is the home of the McAnulty College and Graduate School of Liberal Arts and houses most of its departments and faculties. Instructional facilities include computer labs, the University’s Writing Center, student TV and radio studios, and two large lecture halls.

7 Recreation and Athletics Tour
Along with retail facilities, including Starbucks, Chick-fil-A Express, a computer store, a large study lounge, and PNC Bank ATM, the Duquesne Union houses recreational amenities, a bookstore, conference facilities, and several offices including Student Activities, Greens, Office of Diversity and Inclusion, Judicial Affairs, Commuter Affairs, the Career Center for Development, Freshman Year Registration and Disability Services, and Health Service and Center for Pharmacy Care.

8 Duquesne Chapel
Built in 1894, the Chapel of the Holy Spirit, which lies adjacent to Old Main and where Masses are said daily, offers an atmosphere of spiritual reflection to people of all religious traditions. Its stained-glass windows were crafted in Munich, Germany.

9 Old Main
Duquesne was founded in 1878 in rented rooms above a bakery in Pittsburgh’s historic Hill District neighborhood, which lies just north and west of campus. In 1886, Spiritual priests and brothers constructed the current Administration Building, known now as “Old Main,” of wooden beams and handmade bricks. It is the first structure to be built on campus and at one time housed all of the school’s classrooms and offices as well as living quarters for students and Spirituals.

10 Old Main
Duquesne was founded in 1878 in rented rooms above a bakery in Pittsburgh’s historic Hill District neighborhood, which lies just north and west of campus. In 1886, Spiritual priests and brothers constructed the current Administration Building, known now as “Old Main,” of wooden beams and handmade bricks. It is the first structure to be built on campus and at one time housed all of the school’s classrooms and offices as well as living quarters for students and Spirituals.

11 Duquesne Chapel
Built in 1894, the Chapel of the Holy Spirit, which lies adjacent to Old Main and where Masses are said daily, offers an atmosphere of spiritual reflection to people of all religious traditions. Its stained-glass windows were crafted in Munich, Germany.