Women’s Executive Leadership PROGRAM

Take your career to a higher level.

DUQUESNE UNIVERSITY

Palumbo-Donahue School of Business
What’s next for your company and your career?

Become a leader who creates positive change and drives innovation.

The distinctive Women’s Executive Leadership Program at the Palumbo-Donahue School of Business develops strong performers who will drive growth, innovation and change for their organizations. This program is designed for the middle to senior level executive who is on a trajectory of advancement within her organization.

A collaboration between the Business School, executives and professional coaches, the program offers participants and their companies evidence-based leadership development tools, supported by the latest trends and challenges facing today’s female executives.

What distinguishes the Women’s Executive Leadership Program at Duquesne?

- A personalized learning approach with extensive one-on-one executive coaching sessions focusing on a company and participant-identified stretch project
- Our engaging program format includes in-person and live online sessions
- A strong focus on strengthening and broadening the leadership talents of participants in ways that deliver positive results for their organizations
- Our proven experience and success in women’s leadership development

Value-added benefits for participants:

- Innovative one-on-one coaching with consultants who help you create your own individualized development plan while also addressing a company-specific project
- High-impact learning experiences and stretch assignments will enhance your strategic, interpersonal and personal skills—improving your ability to take on the challenges that senior leaders face

Value-added benefits for organizations:

- High-performing women executives who are better prepared to move the company forward
- Improved corporate profitability and competitive advantage
- Enhanced ability to attract and retain a diverse cohort of leaders who can make a difference
- A stronger culture of support for career advancement and succession planning

Our program provides what the most innovative and competitive organizations want when it comes to building their leadership pipeline. Participants network and learn from other high-achieving women in top companies across a diverse set of industries, including:

- UPMC Health Plan
- GlaxoSmithKline
- Alcoa
- Arconic
- EQT
- Giant Eagle
- Institute for Nuclear Power Operations (INPO)
- MSA Safety
- Westinghouse
- PNC Bank
KICKOFF RETREAT:
STRONG LEADERS, STRONG STORIES
September 15, 16, and 17, 2021
Gain a perspective on how to engage, experience, participate, assimilate and apply the complete spectrum of the program curriculum.

◆ MODULE I: HIGH PERFORMANCE LEADERSHIP
November 4 and 5, 2021
• Develop a customer-focused mindset
• Maximize your team’s potential contribution
• Understand and accept the roles and responsibilities of a leader
• Understand how individual interests, style, needs and stress impact the ability to lead others effectively (results from assessment)

◆ MODULE II: EXECUTIVE PRESENCE AND NEGOTIATION SKILLS
December 2 and 3, 2021
Advance your critical leadership skills to:
• Develop and sustain a positive executive presence
• Build your personal brand
• Develop strategic interpersonal and negotiation savvy
• Muster physical, mental and spiritual energy when you need it most

◆ MODULE III: MAKING ORGANIZATIONAL DECISIONS AS A LEADER
January 13 and 14, 2022
Better understand the organization by:
• Enhance your ability to make and execute decisions using ethical, action-oriented frameworks
• Build agility into decisions; know when and how to change or adapt
• Understand company financials and how to use that information to make good decisions

◆ MODULE IV: GETTING RESULTS IN THE ORGANIZATION
February 10 and 11, 2022
• Understand organizational culture and impact on achieving goals
• Examine characteristics of success within the organization
• Evaluate effective communication strategies so stakeholders respect, listen and act

◆ MODULE V: PLANNING FOR THE FUTURE AND GRADUATION CELEBRATION
March 10 and 11, 2022
• Explore how to anticipate, manage and evaluate change
• Understand the importance of talent management, development, recognition and succession planning to sustain organizational success

Final day: Assimilate, aggregate and synthesize the identity development, skill-building and learning experiences of your executive leadership journey.
• Assess where you began
• Identify what changes and milestones you accomplished
• Document how your leadership style changed
• Describe who you will become
• Develop action steps for continued growth and impact in the workplace

For more information about the Women’s Executive Leadership Program, visit duq.edu/WEL

The formal program concludes with the Celebration of Success reception.
Program Instructors
Our team of instructors include leading professionals and passionate Duquesne University faculty members who have helped some of the most successful companies in the region, nation and world succeed.

Program Cost
Payment of $17,500 is due upon registration. The price includes all program modules and materials, executive coaching sessions and accommodations at the kickoff retreat. Travel expenses are the responsibility of the participant (or her organization). Breakfast and lunch are provided for all on-site sessions.

Certificate of Completion
Upon completion of the program, participants will receive a certificate from Duquesne University.

Registration
For more information or to register participants from your organization, contact John E. Gentner, Director, Corporate Relations and Leadership Development at gentnerj@duq.edu or 412.396.1972 and/or visit duq.edu/WEL.

CASE STUDY
Voni Woods, Vice President, Giant Eagle, Inc.

Successful organizations understand the competitive advantage derived from superior talent. Over the past 12 years, Giant Eagle, Pittsburgh’s sixth-largest employer, has demonstrated its commitment to advancing talented women by supporting their attendance at the Duquesne University’s Women’s Executive Leadership Program.

Voni Woods, a 2009 Women’s Executive Leadership Program graduate, is an example of a passionate results-driven leader focused on continual self-improvement. She has taken her career and organization to the next level. Voni is an Experienced Economy Expert (1 of only 264 in the world) and currently serves as Vice President of Prepared Foods at Giant Eagle.

Outside organizations have also recognized Voni’s leadership and contributions with the most recent honors and awards including:

- Northeast US Woman Executive of the Year
- Induction by the Ambassador of France to the United States into the Private Chapter of the International Cheese Guild
- Silver Plate Award Winner recipient as Top Operator at the Food Service “Oscars”
- Inducted into the Food industry Hall of Fame
- Progressive Grocer Top Women in Grocery Sr. Level Executive category

OTHER TESTIMONIALS

Loretta Cunningham, Director, Commercial, Ancillary, Marketplace, UPMC for Kids and Plan Maintenance Enrollment Services

The Women’s Executive Leadership program cultivates strong women leaders who want to drive change, growth and innovation for their organizations. “The program challenged me personally to cultivate my brand and to refine strategic leadership. My executive coach encouraged me to have passionate vision and to communicate success. I discovered that my leadership challenges were not unique to me, as my fellow cohorts opened their hearts and shared their courageous stories. My personal journey from a doer to a strategic leader has been cultivated because of my participation in the program.”

Diane Fisher, Westinghouse, Director, New Plant Development and Delivery Model

“The phenomenal combination of learning from the highly knowledgeable instructors and learning from this outstanding group of professional women has provided me with an experience I do not think that I could have duplicated in any other forum... this was by far the best learning experience of my career!”

OTHER TESTIMONIALS

Voni Woods, Vice President, Giant Eagle, Inc.

Successful organizations understand the competitive advantage derived from superior talent. Over the past 12 years, Giant Eagle, Pittsburgh’s sixth-largest employer, has demonstrated its commitment to advancing talented women by supporting their attendance at the Duquesne University’s Women’s Executive Leadership Program.

Voni Woods, a 2009 Women’s Executive Leadership Program graduate, is an example of a passionate results-driven leader focused on continual self-improvement. She has taken her career and organization to the next level. Voni is an Experienced Economy Expert (1 of only 264 in the world) and currently serves as Vice President of Prepared Foods at Giant Eagle.

Outside organizations have also recognized Voni’s leadership and contributions with the most recent honors and awards including:

- Northeast US Woman Executive of the Year
- Induction by the Ambassador of France to the United States into the Private Chapter of the International Cheese Guild
- Silver Plate Award Winner recipient as Top Operator at the Food Service “Oscars”
- Inducted into the Food industry Hall of Fame
- Progressive Grocer Top Women in Grocery Sr. Level Executive category

Program Instructors
Our team of instructors include leading professionals and passionate Duquesne University faculty members who have helped some of the most successful companies in the region, nation and world succeed.

Program Cost
Payment of $17,500 is due upon registration. The price includes all program modules and materials, executive coaching sessions and accommodations at the kickoff retreat. Travel expenses are the responsibility of the participant (or her organization). Breakfast and lunch are provided for all on-site sessions.

Certificate of Completion
Upon completion of the program, participants will receive a certificate from Duquesne University.

Registration
For more information or to register participants from your organization, contact John E. Gentner, Director, Corporate Relations and Leadership Development at gentnerj@duq.edu or 412.396.1972 and/or visit duq.edu/WEL.

OTHER TESTIMONIALS

Loretta Cunningham, Director, Commercial, Ancillary, Marketplace, UPMC for Kids and Plan Maintenance Enrollment Services

The Women’s Executive Leadership program cultivates strong women leaders who want to drive change, growth and innovation for their organizations. “The program challenged me personally to cultivate my brand and to refine strategic leadership. My executive coach encouraged me to have passionate vision and to communicate success. I discovered that my leadership challenges were not unique to me, as my fellow cohorts opened their hearts and shared their courageous stories. My personal journey from a doer to a strategic leader has been cultivated because of my participation in the program.”

Diane Fisher, Westinghouse, Director, New Plant Development and Delivery Model

“The phenomenal combination of learning from the highly knowledgeable instructors and learning from this outstanding group of professional women has provided me with an experience I do not think that I could have duplicated in any other forum... this was by far the best learning experience of my career!”
Our programs deliver transformative career impact. We develop leaders with integrity who seize opportunities and embrace change.

Graduate Degree Programs:

- Professional MBA
- MBA Sustainable Business Practices
- Master of Accountancy
- Master of Science and Certificate in Analytics and Information Management
- Master of Science in Management - 100% Online
- Master of Science and Certificate in Supply Chain Management
- Certificate in Entrepreneurship

Our programs are accredited by AACSB International and ranked by U.S. News & World Report and Princeton Review.

Executive Education Programs:

- Women’s Executive Leadership Program
- Emerging Women’s Leadership Program
- Certificate in Financial Planning
- Professional Coaching Certificate
- Custom Programs