For those who are fathers, we ask for wisdom and love in the face of the task of parenting. Give fathers the strength to do well by their children and by You. In Your Holy name, O God, we pray. Amen.

Text: Isaac Watts. Music: Wurth’s Katholisches Gesangbuch

Gloria: Mass of Christ the Savior
Dan Schutte

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Scripture: Book of Job 38:1, 8–11

The Lord constrains the sea. The Lord reminds Job that the sea, in all its power, was made by God. God has set limits and “fastened the bar of its door” and said, “proud waves be stilled!"

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 107: Give Thanks to the Lord

Michel Guimont

Some went down to the sea in ships, to trade on the mighty waters.
These have seen the deeds of the LORD, the wonders he does in the deep.

For he spoke and raised up the storm-wind, tossing high the waves of the sea that surged to heaven and dropped to the depths. Their souls melted away in their distress.

Then they cried to the LORD in their need, and he rescued them from their distress.
He stilled the storm to a whisper, and the waves of the sea were hushed.

They rejoiced because of the calm, and he led them to the haven they desired.
Let them thank the LORD for his mercy, his wonders for the children of men.

Second Scripture: Second Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians 5:14–17

Behold, new things have come. Christ died that all who believe in him might live for the Lord.
The old order has passed away. “So whoever is in Christ is a new creation.”
When a storm threatens to sink the boat in which Jesus and his disciples are sitting, Jesus orders the wind and the sea to be quiet. Immediately the sea becomes calm. Who is this whom even wind and sea obey?

Gospel: Mark 4:35–41

Verse: A great prophet has risen in our midst. God has visited his people.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion: Be Not Afraid

Bob Dufford

1. You shall cross the barren desert, but you shall not die of thirst.
   You shall wander far in safety though you do not know the way.
   You shall speak your words in foreign lands and all will understand.
   You shall see the face of God and live.

   Come follow me, and I will give you rest.

2. If you pass through raging waters in the sea, you shall not drown.
   If you walk amid the burning flames, you shall not be harmed.
   If you stand before the power of hell and death is at your side,
   Know that I am with you through it all.

3. Blessed are your poor, for the kingdom shall be theirs.
   Blest are you that weep and mourn, for one day you shall laugh.
   And if wicked tongues insult and hate you all because of me,
   Blessed, blessed are you!
