2018 ACS Student Member Symposium

Duquesne ACS Student Executive Board Members: Emily Cooper – President; Sadiq Shaik – Vice President; Michael Baldwin – Treasurer; Autumn Schultz – Secretary; Erin Castele – Event Coordinator; Laura Andreola – Event Coordinator; Paul Zakutansky – Public Outreach; Emily Allego, Pranav Cannabilla, Hannah Gering, Emily Leung, Keefe McDougal, Angelo Miskalis, John Roth – Executive Board Members

April 14th, 2018

Meeting Location: Registration, talks, lunch and poster session: Mellon Hall and the Laura Lecture Room

Registration and Poster Setup
8:30 – 9:50 am Coffee, tea, bagels and donuts

Morning Session
(30 minute talks, 5 minutes of questions – with student prizes)

10:00 – 10:05 Dr. Ellen S. Gawalt, Duquesne University “Welcome and Introduction”

10:05 – 10:40 Dr. Noah Snyder, Interphase Materials noahsnyder@interphasematerials.com
“From Brains to Submarines - A Journey in Technology Commercialization”

10:40 – 11:15 Dr. Kristen Kruszewski, Carnegie Mellon University kkruszew@andrew.cmu.edu
"From Biomaterials and Basecoats to the Bigger Picture: Transitioning from Experimental Research to Research Program Management”

11:15 – 11:50 Dr. Aaron Bloomfield, Energy Sciences Institute
aaron.bloomfield@yale.edu
“Synthesis for Catalysis and Catalysis for Synthesis”

Lunch (Laura Hall) 12:00 – 12:30 pm (Lunch provided – including vegetarian selection)

Student Poster Session (Mellon Hall) 12:30 – 1:45 pm
Award Ceremony (Laura Hall) 1:45 – 2:30 pm
Symposium concludes 2:30 pm

For more information and electronic registration, please visit our site

Everyone (faculty, students and visitors) must register (free of charge), and students presenting posters must additionally submit their abstracts at the same site given above.

Questions? Contact the Duquesne Student Members evanseck@duq.edu