CALL FOR POSTERS

2022 Grefenstette Center Fall Symposium

How Can Algorithms Be Ethical?
Finding Solutions through Dialogue and Engagement

POSTER SUBMISSION DEADLINE: FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14, 2022

Do you want to make the world a better place? Do you have a research project related to technology that you’ve been wanting to share or have a reason to work on? Then this is for you!! On October 28, the Grefenstette Center is hosting a one-day conference on a wide variety of perspectives on science, technology, ethics, policy, business, and religion in light of technology ethics, featuring amazing speakers such as Dr. Alondra Nelson, Director of the White House Office of Science and Technology Policy (OSTP) and Bishop Paul Tighe of the Dicastery for Culture and Education at the Vatican! Create and submit a poster by October 14 to put your research in front of world-renowned experts at the intersection of technology, law, ethics, and religion.

 All undergraduate and graduate students are eligible to submit posters.

 Posters may come from any academic discipline!

 ALL accepted posters will receive a $75 acceptance award!

 Best undergraduate and graduate posters will receive $500 awards!

BASIC RULES

• Poster size must be 36x48
• Submit the Poster to avcie@duq.edu as a PDF by Friday, October 14!
• Any current undergraduate or graduate student, from any university, is eligible to submit a poster or be part of a team!
• At least one author must be physically present to present the poster, if accepted.

Questions???
Email GrefenstetteCenter@duq.edu

SCAN THE QR CODE FOR DETAILS AND FULL CONTEST RULES!