JOHN SALLIS: A CELEBRATION OF HIS WORK

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25 – SATURDAY, OCTOBER 27, 2018
One of the leading and most innovative philosophers of our time, John Sallis is the Frederick J. Adelmann, S.J. Professor of Philosophy at Boston College. He previously held Chairs at Pennsylvania State University, Vanderbilt University, Loyola University of Chicago, and Duquesne University, where he co-founded the Simon Silverman Phenomenology Center. He is the founding editor of the journal Research in Phenomenology, and General Editor of Studies in Continental Thought for Indiana University Press. He has lectured extensively in Europe, Asia, North and South America and is the author of more than 20 books encompassing the areas of ancient philosophy, German idealism, art, and contemporary philosophy in the phenomenological tradition.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25
7:30 p.m. | Welcome Remarks
Dennis Schmidt

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26
9 a.m. - 12 p.m. | The Greeks
Walter Brogan, Sara Brill, Shane Ewegen and Claudia Baracchi

1:30 p.m. - 5 p.m. | Art & Imagination
Jeffrey Powell, James Risser, Alejandro Vallega and Bernard Freydberg

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 27
9 a.m. - 12 p.m. | The History of Philosophy
David F. Krell, Drew Hyland, Daniela Vallega-Neu and Peg Birmingham

1:30 p.m. - 5 p.m. | Contemporary Philosophy on Nature & the Elemental
Charles Scott, Michael Naas, Miguel de Beistegui and Jason Wirth

All events will be held in the Africa Room, Student Union.