Political Science Theme Area Courses
2021

Global Diversity & Social Justice

POSC 209: Politics of Emerging Powers
Dr. Clifford Bob, MW, 3:00-4:15; 3 cr.
China, India, Nigeria, and more: a survey of ethnic and religious conflict, democratization and authoritarianism, and political and economic development.

Global Diversity

POSC 245: International Relations
Dr. Jennie Schulze, TR, 4:30-5:45; 3 cr.
War, Peace, Sovereignty, Balance of Power: a study of politics among states.

POSC 209: Politics of Emerging Powers
Dr. Clifford Bob, MW, 3:00-4:15; 3 cr.
China, India, Nigeria, and more: a survey of ethnic and religious conflict, democratization and authoritarianism, and political and economic development.

Social Justice

POSC 105: American National Government
Dr. Lew Irwin, TR, 4:25-5:40; 3 cr.
Presidents, Congress, and Elections: a foundation for understanding and critically assessing American political processes, institutions, and public policies.

POSC 215: National Security & Liberty
Dr. Clifford Bob, MW 4:25-5:40: 3 cr.
This course considers fundamental questions about the collision between national security and democratic liberties. It analyzes such tensions since the start of the Cold War, focusing in particular on such issues as surveillance, torture and drone strikes since 9/11.