NON-TITLE IX SEXUAL MISCONDUCT PREVENTION AND RESPONSE

Duquesne has policies, procedures, and resources in place to promptly, fairly and thoroughly address reports of non-Title IX sexual misconduct. The Office of Title IX and Sexual Misconduct Prevention and Response will use reported information to offer resources and supports, and to assess safety and appropriate next steps.

Office of Title IX and Sexual Misconduct Prevention and Response

Duquesne University does not discriminate on the basis of sex in the education program or activity that it operates. Duquesne University is required by Title IX and its implementing regulations not to discriminate in such a manner. The requirement not to discriminate in the education program or activity extends to admission and employment. Inquiries about the application of Title IX to Duquesne University may be referred to the Title IX Coordinator, to the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights at the United States Department of Education Office for Civil Rights, or both.
