Throughout April

Turn the Campus Teal
- Teal is nationally recognized as the awareness color for Sexual Assault Awareness Month. Duquesne’s campus fountain will be colored teal in support of Sexual Assault Awareness Month. Show your support for survivors and to end sexual violence by:
  - Wearing teal – pick up your teal ribbon on March 29th or April 5th
  - Changing your Zoom background
  - Writing a message of support for survivors
  - Taking the Pledge at It’s On Us (www.itsonus.org)

Comfort Clothing Drive
- Donate new comfort clothing items (e.g. sweats) for survivors of sexual assault whose clothing may be taken as evidence while at the hospital. Donations may be brought to the Women’s Lacrosse Team Game on April 10th at 5 pm. Please contact Sherene Brantley at sherenebr@duq.edu for additional clothing drop-off times and locations.

#30DaysofSaamChallenge
- Get involved in Sexual Assault Awareness Month this April on Instagram. Daily prompts encourage creative ways for you to raise awareness, educate, and connect with others – plus you have a chance to win prizes every day you participate.
  - Daily activities, instructions, and prize information can be found at nsvrc.org/saam.

Paar’s Wellness Series
- Throughout April, Pittsburgh Action Against Rape is hosting several wellness events, including Zen Painting, Energy Healing online workshop, SETpoint Self-Defense Workshop, Perfectly Relaxing Yoga, and Tea for Wellness.
  - Additional details and sign-up information can be found at paar.net/calendar.

Sponsored by: The Office of Title IX and Sexual Misconduct Prevention and Response
- The Office of Human Resources, Commuter Affairs, Department of Athletics, Pittsburgh Action Against Rape, Students Against Sexual Violence, University Counseling Services, The Center for Student Involvement, The Center for Excellence in Diversity and Inclusion, Inclusion/NSVRC (National Sexual Violence Resource Center)
